THE FIRST BLOW.

Cable dispatches may blow hot and blow cold on the subject of the critical complication of affairs in Europe; Mr. Reuter may throw a sop to the bears one day and pat the bulls on the shoulder the next; but, underlying telegraphic tergiversation and gambling manœuvres, there seems to be the plain, hard fact that war between France and Prussia is a necessity. There is a point of mutual distrust and doubt, of half fear, half confidence, to which no two races or nations can arrive without becoming absorbed in and infatuated with the desire to try conclusions and settle the vexing question of superiority. France and Prussia have reached that point. Both are tossed upon the sea of popular passion; both are, so far as the course they shall pursue, beyond the control of their helmsmen; and, like two great ships drifting toward each other on an angry sea, certain and disastrous collision is only a question of time.

War is a necessity to France as a means of working off the bilious irritation which has been accumulating ever since the battle of Sadowa. To let Prussia rest upon the laurels gathered there and quietly consolidate her nearly forty millions of population into a homogenous empire would be to admit that France had lost the commanding lead in Continental politics which with tacit unanimity had been accorded her. Such a humiliation is more than Gallic pride can stand. The typical National Bird involuntarily ruffles his feathers and utters a crow of defiance at the idea. War is a necessity to NAPOLEON. No man can play with fire with more adroitness and audacity than he; no one can perceive more readily the moment when the fire will badly scorch, or, perhaps, destroy him, if it be not permitted in some way or other to burn itself out. To him victory on the Rhine is the alternative for revolution.

War is a necessity to Prussia, as the speediest instrumentality for combining in a common cause the various countries which now are but loosely united under her government or protection. Bismark's heart is set upon a compact German Empire, not a mere Confederation, and he knows that the only cement with which he can successfully build up and bind together his pet project is the blood of battle-fields. Neither he nor NAPOLEON is troubled with a superfluity of scruples. Though both are constitutionally humane and clement men—though Bismark's tenure of absolute political authority is unstained with a single act of cruelty to individuals, and though Napoleon sickened as he looked upon the Solferino slaughter—each and both of them have a second nature which would not shrink from sacrificing the lives of millions in the endeavor to achieve a given object. There is nothing, therefore, to hope for in the interests of peace from the character of the two principals in whose hands the issue is virtually held.

The problem for immediate solution is no longer, Will there be War? It is simply, Who will strike the first blow. The responsibility attaching to the initial movement by which hostilities are to be precipitated is so great; the account which, now-a-days, rulers and peoples have to render to the moral sense of mankind at large is so exacting, that it has come to be the chief end and aim of diplomacy for either side to force from the other the first move that can be construed into actual attack.

An impression seems to prevail that, in the case of France and Prussia, the more advanced state of preparation which the latter has attained, together with the known boldness and occasional choleric impatience of BISMARK, are reasons why the first shot should be fired from the needle gun. On the other hand, it must be considered that Prussia has possession of the Luxemburg fortresses, and really has no excuse for taking the initiative, while that occupation is the very thing that French pride is, in fact, almost pledged to terminate. Then, though there are discordant elements at work in the newly constituted Prussian dominion, there is no revolutionary party, and, indeed, no spirit of discontent formidable enough to require the distraction of war to keep it from fomenting into domestic insurrection. Now, in France, the mercurial and capricious temper of the people is in a state that can best be described as volcanic. They see the star of the second man of destiny they have tried looking very much as if it were on the point of waning. They see his, and with his, their prestige, gradually diminishing; they feel the shadow of the great power that is rising by their side, and are conscious that it casts on them the appearance, at least, of partial eclipse; they think of Mexico, and cannot forget the paltry part their Emperor played in the momentous military drama of last year; and, in brooding over these things, the confidence they had so implicitly placed in Napoleon, involuntary oozes out of them; their admiration of his astuteness and administrative skill evaporates, and their abiding faith in his good fortune vanishes away. They are beginning to circulate mots des salons—malicious, bitterly flavored jokes—about him, and this, with your Parisian, is the first step toward downright contempt.

NAPOLEON is perfectly well aware of all this, and, being a profound judge of French human nature—especially the weak side of it—he is also aware of the fact that there is but one way of neutralizing these alarming symptoms. The patient must be phlebotomized. "France," he will say to himself, with a grim smile, "is feverish; she must be bled;" and he is not the man to shrink from applying the remedy. Inasmuch then as French impatience will exercise on NAPOLEON a pressure from which BISMARK is relieved by German phlegm; inasmuch, also, as Prussia has the advantage of a defensive attitude, which is, of itself, a standing provocation, it certainly seems as if France would be compelled to open the terrible ball, whereat, before it has continued long, half the civilized world will, in all likelihood, be drawn into the frenzied Dance of Death.

Political.

The Democracy of Bedford county have instructed their delegates to the State Convention to cast their votes for Hon. George Sharswood, of Philadelphia, as their candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court.

It having been announced that Hon. J. Glancy Jones, of Berks county, had gone to Georgia on business, the Reading Journal says he "has gone South on a 'stumping tour,' to make speeches to the colored citizens of African descent with a view of winning them over to the Copperhead faith." The Journal thinks it probable that he will find it a good deal harder to pull the wool over the eyes of the colored brethren, than it is to perform the same feat with the Democratic masses of Old Berks.

SLACKWATER EXTENSION.—About twenty-five thousand dollars have been subscribed in Monongalia county, West Virginia, towards the construction of a dam and extension of slackwater facilities to Morgantown. At a recent meeting of the Commissioners, Col. James Evans, Richard B. Carr, and Senator Waltman T. Willey were appointed to visit Pittsburgh and towns on the Monongahela, and ascertain what amount can be obtained in aid of the enterprise. The Committee left Morgantown on Tuesday last on their mission. The Monongalia Post says: "The 'Smoky City' is more interested in this improvement than any other locality—not excepting even this place. The Pennsylvania Central Railroad and the two lines of steamers running to Geneva are deeply interested in it. Will they see it in that light?"

THE MODEL FARMS.—For the benefit of those who may desire to compete, we are requested to state that the time fixed for a meeting of the committee, and for receiving proposals for the location of the Eastern and Western experimental farms, has been changed from the 15th to the 22d of May next.

An Old Claim.

The Commission organized under the treaty of 1863 for the final settlement of the claims of the Hudson's Bay and Puget's Sound Agricultural Companies against the United States, will soon have all the evidence before them. They have been sitting here for some time. The object of the examination of witnesses is to show what was the value of certain buildings and posts of the two companies on the territory south of the 49th parallel of north latitude, which came under the jurisdiction of the United States in 1846. Admiral Wilkes who visited this region in 1841 and 1842, the various offices of the Northwest Boundary Commission, and the officers of the Pacific Railroad Surveys have contributed their knowledge, and it has been the aim of the Counsel of the United States to bring before the Commission everything which can help them to form a correct judgment in the case. The evidence is so conflicting that it is believed that the umpire will finally decide against the claims.

Conscience Money.

Gen. Spinner, Treasurer, yesterday received thirty-five hundred dollars from Cincinnati, which he has credited to the conscience fund. No explanation accompanied it. Twenty-five hundred were in one envelope and one thousand in another.

Stevens vs. Wilson.

Thad. Stevens publishes a letter to-day, addressed to Col. Forney, complaining of and protesting against Senator Wilson's speeches in the South. He says he has no right to make promises for the party, and intimates that it will lead to trouble. It causes a good deal of comment.

Commissioner Bogy.

Special Indian Commissioner Bogy arrived to-day from the West, where he has been engaged in forwarding goods to the plains under late contracts made with Western merchants by the Indian Bureau.

Reconstruction in Mississippi.

Two Mississippi editors had an interview with the President to-night, relative to the condition of affairs in that State. He said that questions which have arisen relative to reconstruction would be decided by the opinion of the Attorney General, and would of course apply to all of the States.

The President to Visit Raleigh.

The administration organ announces on authority that President Johnson has accepted the invitation to visit Raleigh, N. C., about the middle of next month. Raleigh is intimately associated with the youthful life of the President, and the invitation came from old personal friends. There is also a special occasion for the visit. The long unknown grave of his father has been discovered, and the President is to be witness of the erection of a monument with which it is to be adorned. He will be accompanied by Secretary Seward and one or two others of his Cabinet. He will take Richmond in his way, and after leaving Raleigh will visit other Southern towns, and it is probable that he will occasionally address the people who may assemble to greet him. The President will not fail to give his views upon the vital questions of the hour.

The Reconstruction Law.

Attorney General Stanbery had another conference with the President this afternoon, relative to an elaborate legal opinion on the construction of various clauses of the reconstruction law. It is desired to have it published before the work of registration is fully inaugurated.

The White House.

But few visitors were at the Executive mansion to-day, nearly all of whom had an interview with the President, among them ex-Governor Andrew, of Massachusetts.

Honorary Members.

The Washington Press Club to-night elected Senator Anthony, of the Providence Journal, and Speaker Colfax honorary members.

Secretary Browning.

The evening papers announce that Secretary Browning is better, and now considered out of danger.

Affairs in New Orleans.

Special advices from New Orleans to-day state that over five thousand voters have been registered in the city proper thus far. A good many claim that they are qualified to vote, but are turned away by the registers. It is evident that there will be a good deal of trouble until the Attorney General delivers his opinion on that portion of the Reconstruction law disfranchising certain classes. The new Mayor of New Orleans is rapidly changing the entire police of the city.

WASHINGTON, April 28.

THE DEBT STATEMENT.

It is is not probably the publication of the regular monthly statement of the public debt for the present month will be delayed beyond the first or second of May. The indications are that it will show a reduction in the debt of five to six millions. The receipts of customs and internal revenue for the month are about twenty-eight millions, one half of which being for customs in coin. The statement will probably show one hundred millions in coin and fourteen millions or more in gold certificates in the Treasury.

APPEAL.

Sanford Conover's counsel will argue an appeal from the sentence on Monday week.

LETTER FROM THADDEUS STEVENS.

He Insists on Confiscation and Further Terms.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The health of Thaddeus Stevens is much improved. He expects to leave for Pennsylvania next week. He to-day wrote a letter for publication, taking for his subject the following extract from a notice of Senator Wilson's recent speech near Hampton Roads. He (Wilson) said there would be no impedement to Southern representation in Congress if they elected Union men, and closed his remarks by saying he would leave Virginia with full conviction that a Republican Governor, Legislature and two Senators would be elected. Mr. Stevens says:

MR. EDITOR—Such articles as this are calculated to do much harm. They throw obstacles in the way of future reconstruction, being quoted and relied on as pledges by the Republican party. Hence, much trouble arises from certain loose and indefinite expressions contained in a bill which was reported by the Reconstruction Committee of the Thirty-ninth Congress, though never passed. It was perverted by faction and folly into an argument against the whole party in Congress. This generally arises from the carelessness of reporters; sometimes from inadvertence of the speaker. No man should make promises for the party. By what authority does any one say that by the election of loyal delegates they will be admitted? By what authority do they say that Virginia will elect two loyal Senators, while in truth there is no Virginia? Much is to be done by the people and Congress before any Representative, or Senator, or State can be recognized. Who authorized any orator to say there would be no confiscation, as in another place these things are too flippantly said? I think they had better be gravely pondered. Who is authorized to travel through the country and peddle out amnesty? I would say to the most guilty expect punishment and then quietude; but first a mild confiscation, to pay those who have been robbed by disloyal men. These are my wishes, and mine only, perhaps.

THADDEUS STEVENS.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 27.—The steamer America for San Juan took over 1,500 barrels of flour for New York, the first lot via. Nicaraugua. The Sierra Nevada, for Mexican ports, has a cargo valued at one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, sailed to-day. The bark Ethan Allen, for Hong Kong, carried half a million in treasure. Five ocean steamers left this port to-day.

From Boston.

BOSTON, April 28.—The grand jury indicted Edward Curtis, E. P. Dyer, Jr., Chas. Mellen, Charles H. Ward and Charles H. Smith, for implication in the recent financial irregularities of Mellen, Ward & Co. They have been held to bail in $2,000 each for trial.

BY MAILS.

Reconciliation of French and Prussian Claims--Needle Guns in the French Army--Reserve Not Called Out--Complications in the Italian Cabinet--Pension Conferred on Lamartine--Amendment of North German Constitution--Turks Repulsed in Crete, &c., &c.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The steamer America, from Southampton on the 16th, has arrived.

The London Times believes some means can be found to reconcile the conflicting pretensions of France and Prussia.

La Presse says: "However, there is one point, and one only, on which France cannot accept of any compromise—that is, the presence of Prussian soldiers in Luxemburg."

It is rumored that the factory of St. Ettiene has just delivered 60,000 needle guns to the French Minister of War. The establishment is said to be in position to be able to claim the premium of 50,000 francs offered by the Government for the completion of 100,000 rifles by the end of April.

The France says the news circulated about calling out the reserve is devoid of all foundation.

The Gazette de France says: "If we are well informed the Florence Cabinet has already caused it to be intimated to the French Government that in case of war between France and Prussia Italy would be on the side of her allies of 1856. M. Ricasoli, on the contrary, inclined towards Prussia, and the ministerial crisis, which is not quite over, though a Ratozzi Ministry is constituted, is said to have been occasioned especially by the question of alliances, in view of the approaching European war."

The Avenir Nationale is certain that there will be no war at present between France and Prussia. The movement against the army organization bill seems to be spreading in the departments.

The Princess Helena, wife of Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, has given birth to a Prince.

The Avenir Nationale is to be prosecuted for having promulgated false news, in having asserted that military preparations were being made at Lyons, and certain warlike steps taken by the War Department.

The French legislative body has adopted a bill relative to imprisonment for debt. The bill conferring a pension on Lamartine also passed.

In the North German Parliament, Bismarck announced that the Federal Government would accept most of the amendments to draft of the Constitution, if the House would give way on the question of remuneration to deputies and the army arrangements. In the debate which followed, Bismarck said: "If opposition prevents me from completing the work begun, I shall request the King to relieve me of my post." The Parliament subsequently took action in conformity with Bismarck's request.

A letter from Crete, dated March 20th, says that every attempt of the Turks to advance beyond the open country of the northern shore has been repulsed with loss.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The new steamer Cimbra, from Southampton on the 17th, arrived early this morning.

The Paris Presse has a rumor that Bismarck would resign, in consequence of the difference of opinion between himself and the King, the latter being unwilling to accept the evacuation of Luxemburg, on principle. It was said the Count Von Der Goltz would succeed him.

Reports were current of the arrest of Prussian officers by the French authorities at Thionville, and of the arrest of French officers at Mayence and Sordon, but they were declared unfounded.

A circular from the French War Office fixes the price of exemption from military service at 3,000 francs during 1867, and each year remaining at 600 francs.

In the North German Parliament Bismarck made a speech announcing concurrence in the amendment to the draft of the Federal Constitution, by which the strength of the army on a peace footing is to remain unaltered until the common federal code of laws could be promulgated. He opposed the amendment that the next five years should be considered as years of transaction, and that after that period the army on a peace footing should be maintained at the same strength as hitherto, until the promulgation of the general code of laws, when the army expenses should nevertheless be fixed by special law, on the basis of the hitherto existing organization. The amendment Bismarck supported was rejected, 167 against 110, when Bismarck urgently requested the House to pass an amendment which would leave to the Government the choice of time for promulgating the common federal code of laws: saying unless this amendment was adopted, the Federal Governments would not agree to the draft, and the task of drawing up a Constitution might possibly, at the last moment, be frustrated. Notwithstanding this, the amendment was rejected, 157 against 119. The amendment which Bismarck opposed was then adopted, 202 against 80. All remaining articles of the draft were then adopted. The Polish members who had supported Bismarck then resigned their seats in consequence, they said, of the failure of the last attempt to prevent the act of violence committed by their incorporation in the North German Confederation.

The Italian Government has given very stringent orders to prevent or repress any attempt to violate Pontificial territory.

The Courier de Lyons confirms the previous statements of the dispatch of war material to the east and north-east of France.

A Cherbourg paper states that the 65th regiment of the line has been raised to a full war footing.

The Frankfort Journal says all the workmen on iron and lumber to be found in Strasburg were engaged for service in arsenals, and heavy guns were forwarded from Strasburg to fortify Metz.

The London Times of the 7th has an editorial favoring the neutralization of Luxemburg.

It was rumored that Russia and Prussia were in negotiation for the transfer to Prussia of all Poland to the Vistula.

Ninety members had withdrawn from the Bohemian Diet on account of irregularities attending the present elections.

A proclamation was issued in Rome calling the population to rise, and promising Garibaldi's support.

The interdiction upon the sale of La Liberte in the streets of Paris has diminished its circulation

A Berlin letter to the Times says Russia seems favorably disposed to Prussia, while Austria affects impartial but somewhat suspicious neutrality.

Russian journals claims that Luxemburg is German, though not belonging to the confederation. They also state that Polish fortresses are being armed with rifled artillery.

FROM RICHMOND.

Adjournment of the Legislature---Courts Abolished--Who Shall Ride in the Street Cars.

RICHMOND, April 27.—The Legislature will adjourn on Monday.

The examination Courts of the class which acquitted the negro murderer Watson are abolished, and in future the magistrates will either discharge or send before the grand jury all cases brought before them.

General Schofield has advised the Chief of Police that the street car difficulty will be settled by the Railway Company running additional cars for the exclusive use of colored people. The General subsequently obtained a copy of the charter of the company, which has nothing to say who shall ride in the cars, and will probably make a decision on Monday in accordance with his advice to the Chief of Police.

RICHMOND, April 28.—Gen. Schofield to-day served a warning on the Richmond Times, in which he says its editorials are likely to create animosity, and its course cannot longer be tolerated.

The Ice Bridge at Quebec.

QUEBEC, April 27.—The ice bridge opposite this city is still firm and over fifty feet thick in some places. An attempt to blow it up proved unsuccessful. The country between here and Montreal is flooded in many places in consequence of the accumulation of ice. Barns and fences are being carried away.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

Story county, Nevada, contributed $4,700 in gold to the Southern Relief fund.

The New York Board of Health are about to remove the most obnoxious slaughter houses from the city.

The Treasury Department is still in receipt of conscience money, $3,500 having been received from Cincinnati on Saturday.

The disbursements of the Treasury for the week were $5,229,094. Internal Revenue receipts for the same time, $2,608,200, and customs $3,045,761 46.

Sanford Conover, who was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for perjury before the House Judiciary Committee, will be sent in a day or two to the Albany (New York) Penitentiary, to serve out his time.

Hon. E. McPherson, Clerk of the House, has postponed the designation of papers in the Northern States which are to publish the laws of Congress, Mr. Seward having ordered the publication of the laws of the XXXIXth Congress in the papers heretofore designated.

It is stated that the case of Surratt is not under the control of the Administration. When Surratt arrived here in a vessel he was transferred from the custody of the Federal officers to the charge of the Marshal of the District of Columbia, and is now held by that officer solely under the control of the Supreme Court of the district. When the trial shall take place is exclusively within the discretion of that Court.

The French Minister has received voluminous dispatches from the French Government. Notwithstanding the war-like attitude which the Emperor has for some time assumed in his gigantic naval and military preparations, it was not his intention, it appears, to bring on an immediate collision of arms; but advices just received indicate that it has gone beyond his control and that it cannot now be avoided.

D. M. C. Clark, Executive Clerk of the Senate, has been commissioned by Secretary Seward to accompany Admiral Farragut in his flag ship and represent the State Department at the various foreign ports and courts he may visit. He will be gone till December.

A prize fight occurred at Fort Lee Saturday morning, between Jos. Denin and Chas. McCusick. The fight lasted an hour. The former was winner.

Governor Brown addressed a large meeting of citizens of Augusta, Ga., Saturday evening. He took the same ground as in his Atlanta and Savannah speeches, advising the people to accept the terms offered by Congress as being the best and only hope of southern restoration. He said that persistent opposition will exasperate the northern people, and may lead to confiscation. On the other hand, a speedy acceptance of the terms offered will lead to speedy restoration. His address was favorably received.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

A wedding at St. Paul's Church, in Chicago, was singularly frustrated on Thursday evening. The bride, with her friends, went to the church at the appointed hour, and waited a long while, but no bridegroom arrived. She was finally borne to her home in a nearly insane condition. The bridegroom, named Thompson, left his place of business in good time to prepare for the wedding, since which he has not been heard of.

C. A. Sherman has obtained a verdict of $8,000 damages against the Western Stage Company, for loss of his wife, child and mother, who were drowned by the upsetting of one of the company's coaches while crossing Boone river, in Iowa. The trial took place at Lincoln. An appeal has been taken to the Supreme Court.

The Omaha Republican says the belief has become very general that great mineral wealth exists in the Black Hills, and much attention is being drawn in that direction. The people of Dakotah Territory are wide awake on the subject, and a company is being organized at Yankton to start on the 15th of June for that country for mining, exploration and settlement.

The License party achieved a triumph in the Massachusetts Legislature Friday afternoon, in the election of Charles Allen for Attorney General. The principal opposing candidate was R. C. Pitman, of New Bedford, a strong prohibitionist. Mr. Allen was elected on the second ballot, having received 137 votes to 117 for Pitnam, and 4 scattering. It is believed that a license law could be enacted in that State if its friends would rally.

The tobacco crop of Virginia, now coming into market, is one of the largest and best raised for many years past, and is commanding extraordinary prices.

James Buchanan, ex-President, entered upon his seventy-seventh year on the 22d inst. He is still in vigorous health and occasionally makes the trip from Wheatfield to Lancaster, nearly a mile and a half, on foot.

During the next month so many United States Senators have taken berths for Europe, that should there be necessity for a special session in July, it is probable that there would be no quorum of that body in the country.

The records of the War Department show fifty persons are now confined at the Dry Tortugas, nine citizens and forty-one soldiers. The former are Mudd, Spangler, Arnold and O'Laughlin, the conspirators; notorious St. Leger Greenfel, sentenced to hard labor for life for conspiring to release prisoners of war; John P. Adair, a South Carolinian, sentenced to five years for robbery; John Walters, ten years for manslaughter, and Sam. Henry, three years, for assault with intent to kill. Of the soldiers, eighteen were sentenced for desertion, seven for assault with intent to kill, and six for robbery.

The Herald's Ireland correspondence says: The emigrant exodus from Ireland to the United States, is rapidly increasing to a full tide—nine steamships engaged in the transport having left Queenstown harbor alone, within a few days.

The New York Herald says: The Spanish steamer which left Vera Cruz on the 16th inst., three days later than our last intellegences, has arrived at Havana, and reported that Puebla had been retaken by the Imperialist forces. Food was plenty at Vera Cruz when the steamer left, and former reports of a scarcity were declared to be exaggerations.

NEW YORK AND PARIS FASHIONS FOR MAY.

What to Wear and How it is Made.

From our Fashion Correspondent.

NEW YORK, April, 1867.

Summer fashions are always pretty and always attractive. The thin fabrics and lovely delicate colors are in keeping with the tender beauty of the freshly blossoming earth and the returning sunshine, while the pleasure of wearing them is enhanced by the willingness with which we leave off the dark heavy clothing, which has become intolerable with the fine days.

What is the reason, by the way, that winter clothing is made so heavy? Why can it not be made light as well as warm? Feathers are light; fur is light, yet both are very warm; and why could we not have goods manufactured for winter wear which would be warm, yet light enough to save the weight which now requires all the strength of ordinary woman to carry. Undoubtedly it will come some of these days. But, in the meantime, women die under the burden of their clothes. A great deal has been said about the unusual beauty and novelty of the dress goods this season, but although there are some that are very beautiful, there are few that are novel.

The importations are, I think, unusually light, and include, as yet, not a single fabric with which we are not perfectly familiar here. We have been promised the velveteen which acquired a sudden popularity a year or more ago abroad, and is moreover, a comparitively cheap material, but as yet it has only appeared in samples, and in a few dresses specially imported by Mrs. August Belmont and two other ladies. It is not at all a heavy fabric, yet it is too warm for summer, so we shall probably have to wait now for it until next fall, when it will be used largely for ladies and children's suits.

There is another English material, which we ought to have here, in abundance, but which is scarcely ever seen. This is serge. It is excellent for traveling dresses—especially to the lakes or the mountains, as it neither shrinks nor grows limp, and is equally serviceable to ladies who live in the country, who have to ride a good deal, and who are exposed to all sorts of weather.

Instead of this, or something equivalent, we have for traveling dresses all sorts of mixtures, pretty to look at, but dangerous to touch. Silky they are and soft, and all right so long as the sun shines, but let a drop of rain fall upon them and they either crinkle up into a thousand minute corrugations or fall into the wretchedness of an old rag.

Remember that anything is better for a traveling or useful dress, than a mixture. A really good, honest cotton dress is far better, and the delicate, light grey chenes, tempting little stripes, and other fascinations in silk and linen, silk and wool, cotton and wool, and the like, are all a delusion and a a snare.

One of the very nicest materials for traveling dresses, apart from checked walking silk, which is always good and lady-like, is pure mohair; not that usually sold under the name of alapaca, but the genuine article, fine, close, and without any surface gloss. The only goods we have seen of this kind are checked in black hair lines clustered upon white grounds. No temperature affects these goods, they wash like white cotton cloth, and, ironed carefully upon the under side, look quite equal to new. They wear, as old ladies used to say of their knitted stockings, "forever;" but that need not be considered a fault, because, when they have done duty one or more seasons, they are still good to give away.

The light summer silks are all in narrow stripes or small chene patterns. Narrow, shaded stripes, or one shaded and the other of the positive color, are very new and very much worn.

Gaze de Chambery has taken the place to a great extent of grenadine. It is very like grenadine, but holds its stiffness better, and being equally diapharous is quite as attractive and more durable.

Organdies flourish in showy robes and large patterns, which, however, look better in this material than they could possibly in any other. The texture is so thin that a small, uncertain figure becomes absorbed in it, and only succeeds in giving a dismally dirty or [illegible] tint to the surface, whose exquisite fineness and perfect transparency throw up with fine effect beautiful designs and brilliant coloring.

Nearly all the muslins that are not robed are made narrow at the top of the skirt and with a deep flounce. Cambrics are made up in the same way. The prettiest design in cambric consists of a small leaf-like figure upon a white ground, with an exceedingly narrow bordering to match, which is used for trimming. One, two or three rows of this bordering constitute the heading to the flounce, and the body is made with a deeply pointed yoke trimmed to match. White dotted muslin dresses are very pretty made in this way, with a frill of lace surrounding the yoke.

The latest style of hooped skirt is not a "skeleton," but has the springs woven into a thin cotton fabric. They will wash without injury to the springs and with very little trouble, and are fast achieving a popular as well as fashionable reputation, as they save the trouble of skeleton skirt covers and all liability to accident. Two and a half and two and three-quarter yards are the usual size of the skirts at the extreme base, and four and a half yards, the whole width of a gored and trained dress skirt. Speaking of skirts, we may as well mention in this connection, that when partially gored, they are left almost plain in front, but plaited on the sides and gathered and guaged at the back. We have mentioned this change before, but repeat it at the request of several distant correspondents.

SUMMER CLOAKS AND SUITS.

The short loose sacs which are universally worn this season are comfortable, convenient and economical, but they are destitute of elegance. Like the short dresses, they are exceedingly well adapted for street wear, but they are quite out of place in conjunction with a stylish carriage and visiting toilette.

Strange to say there are no made up garments for this season suited to this purpose. The long train of a rich dress requires length, if not amplitude of drapery, and ladies are forced back upon their India and Paisley shawls, until the season comes for guaze and lace burnous, which promise to be as fashionable as ever.

A great effort is made to give an appearance of distinction to the new summer silk cloaks by fine and elaborate trimming, but though it is admirable in itself, it is only detail after all, and adds nothing to the grace of outline.

Very narrow folds and rouleaux of black satin with a fine silk embroidery braid running through the center are the most fashionable description for black silk sacs and paletots. Some of these have the addition of lace and some of fringe upon the edge and across the top of the sleeves.

Nearly all are trimmed lengthwise upon the back. Some with lines or narrow folds, commencing close to the back of the neck and widening out into a fan shape towards the bottom of the garments, others forming sash ends, which descend below the edge of the skirt, or form a simple barbe-like ornament for the seams.

One of the features of the new cloaks consists of narrow standing bands for the throat, scolloped out on the upper edge. These are arranged to wear with the narrow lace neck ties, which are now in vogue.

Another feature is the wide flowing sleeves, which it must be said are rather out of place in conjunction with short and close, though not tightly fitting garments. The style most in vogue is straight down the center of the back, but cut in a little upon the side seams. This shapes it a trifle without fitting it to the figure.

A very new idea in trimming, in fact the very latest, is to introduce color into the decoration of black silk paletots. The color is sometimes wrought in embroidery, mixed with black silk or jet. In other designs it forms rosettes or leaves placed at intervals upon rouleaux of black satin.

It need not be said that all these attempts at novelty of effect are in terribly bad taste, and can only have a transient vogue. Black silk paletots or cloaks are never so lady-like as when wholly black. Lace or a fine silk and jet embroidery added to narrow black satin folds or alternating with them, is really an improvement, but patches of color are inartistic to the last degree.

The Polish sacs are the prettiest styles in cloth for Spring promenade wear. They are made in handsome light tweeds, and trimmed only with light buttons, chased silver, opal, enamelled or the Italian cameo.

The Breton paletots, described in a previous letter, are the most distinguished for morning and seaside wear. They are made in marine blue and white cloth, and decorated with unique patterns in Breton applique embroidery. They will also be favorite yachting jackets, the design, instead of a scapulary and the like, being anchors and other nautical emblems, with buttons to match.

The most admired summer suits are made of delicate chene, or very narrow striped silk in two colors, the trimming consisting always of narrow cross-cut folds of silk in the contrasting color. The method generally adopted now is to cut the dress skirt the correct (short) length, and simulate petticoat with the trimming. Sometimes, however, the petticoat is made of white mohair, and trimmed with folds of silk to match the dress.

It may be interesting to some readers to know that there are several distinct shapes in the wide, flowing sleeves. The first and most common of them is La Juive, a revival of the old pagoda. The next is the Polish sleeve, which is cut straight and open to the top of the arm; the third is the Venitienne, which is open to just above the elbow on the inside seam; and the fourth is the Russian sleeve, which is open on the inside seam, but has a closed military jacket cuff, dangling at the extremity.

INDIA AND PAISLEY SHAWLS.

These two kinds of shawls are always fashionable; always indicative of the social position and good taste of the wearer. Pure Cashmere shawls yearly become more scarce and difficult to obtain—the production being limited and the demand constantly increasing. The price advances with great rapidity, so fast, that a lady recently obtained for her India shawl, which had been worn six years, two hundred dollars more than she had paid for it.

It is not generally known what an immense business is done in the purchase and sale of second hand India shawls. Three-fourths of those which come to this country have been worn in India, England or France, and here again they are bought and frequently sold back again to the dealer at a trifle less, or as in the instance cited above, a trifle more than they cost.

Much depends on some trick of form or coloring which happens to affect the fashion. Sometimes black, sometimes red and sometimes white centers or lines of coloring are the rage, and if the shawl to be sold fulfils that particular condition, and is also fine and in good order it will bring nearly a new price.

Our new nobility are willing sometimes to pay a higher price for an old cashmere shawl, which has been remarkably fine, than for a new one, in order to be able to boast of it as an heirloom (!)—heaven bless them!—when probably any respected maternal ancestor they may have had considered herself well off to own a good plaid woolen one.

A large business is done in such establishments as A. T. Stewart's—in altering and remodelling old India shawls and scarfs, in supplying new centers and fringes of the fashionable color, in cleansing, darning and furnishing new bits to be inserted or new corners for them. He cannot make the entire shawl in this country, but there are girls who can embroider and make pieces or small gores which can rarely be detected even by a connoisseur. A few years ago the price of an India shawl rarely exceeded a thousand dollars, and we have heard experienced salesmen declare that beyond that price it was almost impossible to discover a shade difference in the quality. Now, they frequently reach three thousand dollars and five thousand, is not an impossible sum for one shawl for one poor, weak woman's back. One would think it would break under it.

The most distinguished Paisley shawls are now made with black centers and black fringe, and many ladies are having their white centers replaced by black ones, an economical change, when the white ones have become soiled, as they can be taken out washed and used for other purposes, or a price will be allowed for them.

NOTHINGS.

The newest black veils are simple squares, surrounded by an edge of real lace, the sides cut in slightly, so that the four corners form four points each finished with jet pendants, the weight of which holds the veil in its place.

"Reins," or streamers at the back are as much worn as ever, but they are now in silk, or the material trimmed, instead of ribbons, and the hanging loops are avoided altogether. Upon some very handsome black silk cloaks, they are simulated in embroidery.

The "La Petite" sash is a novelty for very young ladies, to be worn with white Swiss or organdie dresses. It consists of a square bib of blue or pink silk, to which long sash ends are attached, tied down in wide bows upon the skirt behind. Bib and sash are edged with a notched out-ruching of the silk. The bib is fastened upon the front of the body, which is cut low, the same as a big apron.

Gloves for evening wear are now very long, extending far upon the arm. With ordinary evening dress they are a mere affectation. They are intended to form a part of a strictly "Empire" costume, and only with the antique style are they appropriate.

The rounded basque in front, known as the "Free Mason's apron" is now made in a network of beads, with fringe attached, for rich evening and dinner dresses. JENNIE JUNE.

Business of the West---Railroad Freights.

The following are the rates of freights East by the Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne Railroad, to the points named:

From Chicago to	Second Class.	Third Class.	Fourth Class.	Flour bbl.
Boston and Providence	$1 64	$1 10	55c	$1 10
New York, all rail	1 54	1 00	50c	1 00
Philadelphia, all rail	1 44	91	45c	90
Baltimore, all rail	1 44	91	45c	90
Pittsburgh, all rail	1 30	60	30c	60

And these rates, low as they are considered, are said by the Chicago Republican to be tending downwards. Freight by the lakes is even more depressed, and is quoted almost nominal. The railroad men complain loudly that at the above rates there is little if any profit for them, and the little coming forward shows very plainly that the West is not thriving, but, like the rest of the Union, is feeling the cost of the rebellion in the payment of high taxes, which chills enterprise. The reports of commercial travelers from the West are bad. Collections are made with difficulty, and Eastern merchants are informed that more goods have been sold than will be paid for promptly.

THE French Emperor is engaged experiments with a new cannon of his own invention, the effects of which are expected to be as formidable as those of the rifled cannon at Solferino, are now going at Vincennes. This gun, carefully concealed from the eyes of the public, and even of the soldiers, is worked by officers. It is of small calibre, of copper, and it is stated that by a system of metalic discs and a tourniquets, (of which the writer says he cannot give a description.) from twelve to fifteen shots can be fired in a minute. It is in reality a system of the needle gun applied to artillery. These experiments commenced six months ago, and were intended to be kept profoundly secret; but in spite of everything, the matter was revealed to Prussia some time ago.

THE disturbed state of our Southern country has added most materially to the natural disposition of our people to seek new homes, and a large emigration has already begun from the South to Brazil. The steamship North America, from New York on Monday for Rio de Janeiro, took out two hundred and forty passengers, mostly emigrants from the South. And it is but a few days since three hundred and sixty left Mobile, for the same destination, in charge of Rev. Mr. Dunn. They were chiefly planters and their families, from Texas, Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana. A tract of land has been secured for them and others who may join them, some forty miles long by twenty-four wide.

THE charge of the Lord Chief Justice of England in reference to the long pending Jamaica trials, establishes the broad principle that the English law recognizes no means for punishment of even the most atrocious criminals, except by trial by jury, and that the maintenance of justice should always be the grand object of all Government action in the military, as well as in the judicial branches.

CROUP.—Wring a linen cloth—cotton will do, but linen is preferable—out of cold water, fold it so as to make several thicknesses, and place it upon the child's throat and chest, then fold a dry flannel and wrap carefully over it. Warm the child's feet—with hot stones if necessary—and cover with plenty of bed clothes and let it go to sleep; you cannot perceive when it wakes that it has even a cold. It acts like a charm.

TANNING WITH CHESTNUT WOOD has been introduced to the notice of "La Halle aux Cuirs," of Paris, by J. Algetiere, Jr., a tanner at Lyons. He claims that the tanning obtained from this source instead of the bark, makes leather of peculiar fineness, uniformity and excellence of color, and superior quality in all respects as compared with the best oak tanned.

THERE are more English than French visitors to the Exposition. Americans are few and far between, angel-like; occasionally you hear the familiar nasal as you pass along the corridor, but, although there are some thousands of Americans now in Paris, they seem to keep shy as yet from the Champs de Mars.

SECOND EDITION.

4 O'CLOCK, A. M.

HIGHLY INTERESTING.

A PRIZE FIGHT—ALMOST.

A cable special to the Herald says: The prize fight for the championship of England, between Wormald and O'Baldwin, did not come off, the latter failing to appear. The stakes were awarded to Wormald.

MEXICO.

Advices from Queretaro to the Secretary of State, say the Imperialists made another sortie on the 6th, but were repulsed, and General Miramon mortally wounded.

WANTS TO COME HOME.

Dr. Luke Blackburn, who attempted to introduce the yellow fever by means of infected clothing into the United States during the war, has petitioned the Attorney General for permisson to return from Canada to his native land, and take his trial in January. The Attorney General is understood to have answered that he had no power to grant the request.

THE CHOLERA.

The Board of Health have information that cholera was prevalent in three cities of the Union, and may be expected here from the interior.

WOULD-BE SUICIDES.

Two young girls in the eastern district of Brooklyn attempted suicide last night, named Adeline Kelly and Mary Moore.

DISCHARGED.

Two men named Quirk and Owens, tried for an outrage on a partially insane girl in Williamsburg, have been discharged, it appearing that a mock ceremony of marriage was performed at the time between Quirk and the girl, in the presence of the latter's mother. The mother has disappeared, and two other villains engaged in the outrage are at large.

THE GARDINER WILL CASE.

The testimony in the Gardiner will case, in which Mrs. ex-President Tyler was the principal witness, was finished yesterday, and will go to the jury on Monday. In her evidence she stated that the property of her late husband consisted almost entirely of slaves, and was destroyed by the war.

UNDOUBTEDLY A CANARD.

A special from Knoxville to the Times states that a mob of Loyal Leaguers in Belmont county, Tennessee, recently drove out a minister of the Methodist Church South, and dispensed the congregation. They were instigated by a preacher of the Methodist Church North.

STEAMERS ARRIVED.

The steamers Queen, from Liverpool on the 10th, and the United Kingdom, from Glasgow on the 6th, arrived to-night. The Kangaroo, which arrived yesterday, was detained at quarantine, having some cases of small pox aboard. The United Kingdom brought here the crew of the bark Virginia, before reported found abandoned at sea.

SWEDISH WAR SLOOP.

The Swedish sloop of war Gifle, arrived today from the West Indies.

THE INDIAN WAR.

Mail Party Murdered---Pacific Road to be Protected---Crow Indians Friendly.

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—The Republican's Omaha special says the loss of the mail party, between Laramie and Fort Reno, is confirmed. Three of their mules were found dead, but the fate of the men is a mystery. General Auger is making all possible preparations for the protection of the Union Pacific railroad. Trains are now running regularly on that road to North Platte.

General Smith, with the Fourth regiment, left Omaha yesterday for Fort Laramie. General Wessal is at Fort Phil. Kearney. He reports that the principal Crow chief came to that post on the 15th and gave satisfactory assurances of peaceful disposition toward whites, and said they would meet a commission to settle the reports circulated of their joining the Sioux in hostilities.

FROM CHARLESTON.

General Sickles Requires a Procession of Firemen to Carry the American Flag.

CHARLESTON, April 27.—Gen. Sickles halted the parade of the Charleston firemen to-day, and required them to obtain an American flag and carry it at the head of their column before continuing their demonstration. He also required a guard of honor to be detached from among the firemen to carry it, and that it be placed opposite the reviewing personages, and be respectfully saluted by every fireman raising his cap as he passed. The firemen acquiesced cheerfully, waited for the flag, and after procuring one proceeded with the parade.

FROM BALTIMORE.

Election on Wednesday---Sunday Cars---Fire.

BALTIMORE, April 28.—Lively interest is manifested in the election of Wednesday, for Judge and Clerk of the new City Court. The nominations are all made.

The street passenger cars commenced Sunday trips to-day.

Carroll Hall, an old building containing a billiard room and the studios of several artists, on the corner of Calvert and Baltimore streets, was burned to-day. Loss, $30,000.

FROM HARRISBURG.

Death of A. W. Benedict, Clerk of Pennsylvania House.

HARRISBURG, PA., April 28.—A. W. Benedict, late Clerk of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, and Secretary of the Republican State Central Committee, died to-day at Huntingdon.

Fire in Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 28.—A fire occurred on East Bay street this morning, destroying a large warehouse occupied by auction and commission merchants. Loss $150,000, of which one-third is covered by insurance, chiefly in New York offices. The principal sufferers are Tobias & Sons, James W. Brown & Co., Jefferts & Co., L. F. R. Ostrand and A. J. Salinas.

OHIO STATE FAIR.—The Premiums and Regulations for the Eighteenth Annual Fair of the Ohio State Board of Agriculture, to be held at Dayton in September, have been issued. Competition is open to the world, and entry fees are abolished, so that any person may compete for any premium without fee or price. This is a radical change in the fair business, whose workings will be watched with interest.

THE new Hudson river steamer Drew, belonging to the People's Line, cost between seven and eight hundred thousand dollars; is 400 feet long, and 80 wide; her main saloon is 350 feet, and all her appointments are on "a scale unparalleled in steamboating." She has 350 state rooms, and accommodations for 1,000 passengers.

GOING TO WORK.—The Sharon Herald of Saturday says: "The Westerman Iron Company have decided to set their works in operation on Monday, paying the puddlers nine dollars per ton. How long the mill will be able to run at that rate it is hard to say, but if only for a few weeks, it will be a source of great relief to many of those dependent upon it for employment."

RUSSIAN IRON.—The Portsmouth, Ohio, Republican, in noticing the fact that a new rolling mill is about to commence the manufacture of Russian iron in that place, says: The proprietors of the new rolling mill are in possession of the true secret, directly from the only manufactory where it is made in Russia. The secret was sent to this country clandestinely, through the agency of a citizen of Youngstown, Ohio, and a relative he had in the iron works of Russia. It was sent a word at a time, in a long correspondence. This, it will be at once perceived, is a very important matter. Russia has kept a close monopoly on this superior iron, and has been able by it to extort from us, as well as other nations, a heavy revenue.

Patents Issued.

The following patents were issued to Western Pennsylvanians from the United States Patent Office, for the week ending April 25, 1867:

J. Y. Smith of Pittsburgh, Pa., for improvement in steam engine piston.

P. J. Stouffer, of Uniontown, Pa., assignor to self and Henry White, for improved composition for preserving eggs.

Oliver Etnier, of Mount Union, Pa., for improvement in cultivators.

Samuel B. Fay, of Franklin, Pa., for ticket fastener.

D. L. Furnier, of Rostraver, Pa., for improvement in riddles for sand washers.

Samuel Melsom, of Erie, Pa., for improved apparatus for rolling clevices and ploughshares.

James Edward Thorpe, of Erie, Pa., assignor to self and W. J. F. Liddell, of same place, for improvement in steam pumps.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.—We would call the special attention of the friends of temperance to the County Convention to be held to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, in the Methodist church, Fifth street. Not only the delegates from the churches and various temperance organizations, but all other friends, including the ladies, are cordially invited. The children's meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock in the City Hall. Popular speakers will be secured and temperance hymns sung. It is expected that our Sabbath Schools will generally attend. As this will be an important and interesting meeting we would suggest that the public schools should be suspended for that afternoon, to give an opportunity for all to be present.

Daily Commercial

MONDAY, APRIL 29, 1867.

ATTORNEY GENERAL STANBERY, in his argument before the United States Supreme Court, last week, in support of the motion to dismiss the Mississippi and Georgia injunction bills—bills brought to thwart the people expressed in acts of Congress—though sympathizing politically with those who initiated the proceedings, used the following language, signifying an important principle: "If there is power in this Court to veto laws which the people consider wholesome and necessary, and instruct their Representatives to pass, it is high time that they should know it; but such a power has never before been invoked."

THE "Old North State" is a good Union paper published at Salisbury, North Carolina; that is, good for the South and under the circumstances. It views things calmly and evidently regards the future more how to live in peace and insure prosperity, than how to cherish and gratify resentments. At present it thinks the Southern people had better attend to the work of reconstruction and make the best of it; after that politics and party organization. Were it not for the leadership of STEVENS, BUTLER, ASHLEY and that sort, it would not be disinclined to accept at once the Republican party—seeing that its principles are not particularly objectionable. But in view of this leadership it is for organizing another party—with the extremes out—composed of all who can agree, North and South, under the name "National Union" or "National Republican," or any other.

SENATOR CAMERON is understood to have the Presidency on the brain; and herein we have the explanation of the sharp bargains he drove with ANDREW JOHNSON for the offices, whereby he pretty effectually unhorsed nearly the entire Pennsylvania delegation. We are assured if the vote of the Keystone State is not cast for SIMON in the next Presidential Convention, it will not be because he has not laid himself out for it, fully resolved to play high to carry his point. The Senator and "the man at the other end of the avenue" are said to be on good terms. THADDEUS STEVENS and Judge KELLEY are understood not to be entirely neutral, nor as yet pronounced supporters of Mr. CAMERON's modest pretensions. Though Mr. JOHNSON was unable to help SIMON to the lion's share of the offices, it is not so clear how he can assist him further in his Presidential aspirations.

WELL-INFORMED foreign correspondents say a good many Englishmen are so disgusted with the Russian Cession that they do not desitate to declare themselves in favor of letting the territory of the Hudson's Bay Company and even Canada go, if the United States will only pay anything decent for them. Spite the forced serenity of the British press, Mr. BULL is quite unable, as yet, to understand the business. And the secresy in which it was managed; that is the mortifying part of the affair. When questioned, Lord STANLEY was forced to declare he knew nothing about it, but had to telegraph to Washington for particulars. She question occurs to the English mind—what is going to turn up next? America makes slight show in the Paris Exhibition, says a London letter, but she can frighten England from her propriety by a simple stroke of the pen.

THE Albany Journal, without denying the charge of corruption brought against the Legislature, maintains it should not, even if true, be made by Republican journals. Whereupon the New York Times remarks, if this is the discipline that is to prevail, "then the office of a party organ is a post much more contemptable than any honorable man ought to be asked or expected to fill." The Tribune, backed by the Union League, reverses the position; because the charge is true it holds all the more pressing is the duty to expose corruption, and call on the people to apply the remedy. Otherwise the party will be made to bear the odium that properly attaches to the corruptionists. Which is the better organ, the journal that denounces, or the one that seeks to hide corruption? At Harrisburg, as at Albany, there is a Republican journal which would stifle expression—thus give perpetual license to the corruptionists—and make the party bear the odium. Without a word of rebuke for those who sell their votes, it manifests great concern for the "honest men" who will suffer from a repetition of the charge. Rogues, ever since the world began, have attempted to hide behind honest men—a trick they will avail themselves of just as long as the hush policy can be enforced. But honest men have nothing to fear from an exposure of corruption in the Legislature, and the interest which the rogues manifest for them is the evidence of how much they fear their own rascality will be exposed. The time has come, however, for the sifting process, and it is to be hoped that at least a majority of the rogues will, in future, be compelled to remain outside the State Capitol.

THE PURITANS.

In noticing the invidious use of the terms Puritan and Plymouth-rock, by the Pittsburgh Post, we understood them to be so used, as representatives of political ideas. We proceeded upon that supposition, the article of the Post being a mere tirade against THAD. STEVENS and the Republican party. But by its Saturday's issue, we discover that we were entirely mistaken, and that the terms were used in their ecclesiastical significancy. In other words, that while the Post's article was in form a terrific ons'aught on THAD. STEVENS, its sharpest sting, couched in the epithets referred to, was meant to be given to New England theology. What one took to be democratic railing was nothing but a catholic feature in orthodoxy, which concludes with the following remarkable confession of faith:

"We have more respect for the Mormons who only trangress a portion of the decalogue, than we have for the religion of New England, which strikes the whole christian system, by denying the second person of the Trinity."

We decline to discuss, with the Post, the subject of New England theology, yet we are free to admit that the above confession indicates rather strength of faith than sound morals.

But we must give it some information about the Puritans. HUME makes three classes of them. First, Puritans of the State. Second, Puritans of the church, and third, Puritans of doctrine. The first were those who stood by the laws of the land in opposition to the arbitrary power of the king. A large proportion of these were the staunchest churchmen. The second class were those who discarded many of the ceremonies and rites of the English church, and the third were those who were distinguished for their profession of the earliest Reformers. Mr. HUME, who cannot be suspected of partiality to such people, says, "they held the highest principles of civil liberty." One of their most able and decided opponents concentrated all the bitterness of his hostility to them in one brief declaration, charging them with holding "vile republican principles." Another writer says, "their large views of civil government were sometimes imputed to them as a crime, by their courtly adversaries." It was the correspondence of political principles that give the Puritans of England the name of Republicans, and it is the same, that secures to Republicans now the name of Puritans.

Mr. HUME further says of them, that "the precious spark of liberty was kindled and preserved by the Puritans alone, and it was to this sect that the English owe the whole freedom of their constitution." And it is to the same hereditary spirit, that New England is indebted for the honor of having resisted tyranny in the American revolution. And the opposition of all sorts of aristocrats, in church and State, has been directed against them, because, as HALLAM, the philosophic historian, says of the Puritans, "they grounded the legitimacy of government on the Republican principle of popular consent."

It is easy, therefore, to see why the term Puritan should, to certain kinds of modern politicians, be as odious as the term Republican was in the days of LAUD and the CHARLESES. In its purely political significancy—to say nothing of the religious antipathy of the Post—Puritanism is a hated idea by all abettors of slavery. No papers have rung the changes on the name so constantly as the Richmond papers did during the rebellion and since. If they have any rivals they are such papers as the New York Freeman's Journal and those of similar proclivities. But the noble history of the name, as the representative of political ideas, makes it easy for the loyal Republican Union party to bear it. Meant to be ignominious by those who know nothing about its real significancy, it is in fact an honorable testimony to the Republican party.

Who Will Control the Negro Vote in the South?

We have been permitted to see a letter from an intelligent colored man in Alabama, which presents views on the question of the negro vote at the South, which it may be well for Northern men to look in the face. We make a few extracts:

"You ask 'How will the negro vote?' I do not profess to speak as an oracle or prophet, but I can give you the result of my observations during a Southern residence of two years.

"I do not wish to alarm you when I say that the South will control the negro vote. But how? She will control it by the adoption of Northern idea, and by a wide departure from her former habits and customs respecting the colored man. To control it in any other way is among the things impossible. In the Southern efforts to conciliate the freedmen you cannot have failed to notice that their final efforts in that direction have been characterized by a strong leaning toward the principles of the extreme Northern Radicals. Vide Wade Hampton's speech at the convention of black and white men at Columbia, S. C. Said he, 'are we not citizens of the same State?' i. e. 'are we not men and brothers?'

"The situation is just this: The Reconstruction bill has cut off all hopes from any source save that of treating the black man as a man, and the bitterest rebel acknowledges the necessity of cutting loose from former ideas and prejudices, and of entering upon a new and higher civilization. We are about to witness another verification of the old proverb that 'extremes often meet.' If the South, in the course of a few years, does not vie with the North in her efforts to befriend the black man, then the present signs indicate nothing. Grant that they be selfish efforts, and yet the rule of cause and effect will regulate things. Every man wishes happiness and prosperity for himself and family, and he will recognize the man who gives him sympathy and aid. They may be fooled in the choice of candidates, but the man elected by their votes will have to be uncommonly circumspect and upright if he would desire a second election. They will be compelled to take the 'lesser of two evils' for some time to come in the matter of elections. I speak in reference to municipal and State affairs. 'There are none good; no, not one.' They must support the least obnoxious man. As to the 'Union party' of the South, it is a myth.

"The white vote will not be a unit. Aside from the question of Unionism, some man will be found at every election, who from his desire for office, will promise colored voters his services if they will support him. These, with his white friends, will be certain to put him in office. He will have to make his promises good if he expects or desires a re-election.

"There is no evidence that colored men are going to clamor for office. The universal desire among them is for light, more light. They know they are ignorant, and I regard that as a hopeful sign.

"In a Presidential election, I firmly believe, they would support any Northern man from Charles Sumner to Vallandigham."

Independent Order of Good Templars.

In 1851, this Temperance organization, now so popular and so wide-spread, had an obscure origin in one of the small towns in Western New York. For a few years after it was instituted little was heard of the society, but for the past twelve years its progress has been steadily onward, until it now has Grand Lodges in all the States of the Union, but five; also in all the British Provinces, with upwards of one million members all pledged to total abstinence and prohibition. As an instance of the growth of the Order, we may mention that in 1863 there were less than thirty Lodges or societies in all Pennsylvania; now there are three hundred of these Lodges in this Commonwealth, and we are informed by one of the Grand Lodge officials that these are but six counties at present in our State, without any Lodges, and to these the Grand Lodge lecturers have been directed to go, and organize Lodges in each of them at once, so that at the annual session of the Grand Lodge, which is to be held in Allegheny City, commencing on June 13th, the Grand Lodge officers may be able to report the Order established in every county. Rapid as has been the increase of the Order in Pennsylvania, it has been equally successful in other States, from Maine to California. In Michigan there are four hundred Lodges!

The session of the Grand Lodge, to come off as stated, will call together not less than five hundred delegates from the various Lodges of the State, and doubtless a portion of the time will be devoted to public meetings in the Halls and churches when the orators of the Order will have an opportunity of addressing the public generally. Every subordinate Lodge is entitled to send one representative to the Grand Lodge. Every Lodge having one hundred members on the 30th of April, is entitled to send two representatives, and one for each additional fifty members. The coming Grand Lodge session, owing to the great increase of the Order during the past year, will be one of great importance, and at the proper time full reports of the proceedings will appear in the COMMERCIAL.

IT seems generally conceded that Mr. Beckwith, the Chief Commissioner for the United States to the Paris Exposition, is about as bad an official mistake as can well be imagined. He may mean well enough, but he is in the unfortunate situation of a man who does not know whether it would be more to his credit to resign or to hold on and complete the dead failure he has thus far made. The foundation of Mr. Bigelow's fault, in indicating Mr. Beckwith for the position, was the fact that Mr. Beckwith had lived for twenty years in France, and had lost pretty nearly all the American characteristics and sympathies he ever had. A live, energetic Yankee, fresh from home and brimfull of national enthusiasm, would have far better represented the interests of the country and have done us, as a people, infinitely more credit.

AMONG the universal miscellany of attraction which crystalizes about the great Exposition, the drinking saloons peculiar to different nationalities receive a large share of attention and patronage. The special fancy among the fast young gentlemen of Paris is Messrs. Spier and Pond's Australian counter, where convivial beverages and other refreshments are served by a bevy of pretty English bar maids. A frightful amount of flirtation is carried on with these fair damsels, who, says a correspondent, will get along very well "when they have learned that a franc and a half is not one and sixpence, and that when a Frenchman asks for Maderia he means Sherry."

THE fact that Maximilian offered to capitulate on the condition he would be permitted to leave the country unharmed, and that the Liberal (how liberal!) General declined to grant the terms, proves the existence of an extreme purpose towards the usurper, and that it was well for his friends to apply to Mr. Seward to save his head. The latest accounts represent Seward's messager in search of Juarez, who evidently is disposed to carry things with a pretty high hand. Should he not be found in time, the head of Max, may go equally high.

RECORDER HACKETT, in New York, in these times of eruptive criminality, is setting a good example in dealing with criminals. Last week he sentenced a man convicted of arson, to imprisonment for life, and two others, convicted of robbery under aggravated circumstances, to twenty years. The beauty of these penalties is, they followed close on the commission of the crimes. It is to be hoped this system of administering justice will not be confined to New York.

AN Æronautical Society recently met in London, with the Duke of Argyle at its head. Experiments are constantly making, and many cling to the belief that traveling through the air will be as common as on the sea. Some of the best men in England support the experiments, and entertain the belief. The Duke of Sutherland has offered a reward of one hundred pounds to any one who by mechanical means will fly to the top of Stafford House.

THE fact that ten thousand tailors are on a strike in Paris is interpreted to mean the failure of the great expectations concerning the Exposition, and possibly the forerunner of other complications in the affairs of France. With war threatened by Prussia, the Red Republicans organizing and the working classes disturbed, something like a volcano may be said to be under the Empire.

VIRGINIA VS. WEST VIRGINIA.—The Richmond Enquirer says: Some of the Southwest Virginia Redstrings are advocating annexation to West Virginia to escape negro votes. It would be a good idea to annex the whole State to West Virginia. We would thus get into the Union, and according to some of the legal doctors, get rid of the State debt at the same time.

SENATOR NYE and the Hon. Wm. D. Kelley will shortly depart for the South on a stumping tour. Both are good speakers and fair representatives of the more radical Republicans. Probably better exponents of these doctrines could not have been found.

MR. FRANK COWAN, son of ex-Senator Cowan, has been appointed Secretary to the President to sign land warrants. Any old clothes?

WHAT PITTSBURGH MUST COMPETE WITH.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

The following is an exact copy of a letter received from a very large and substantial house in Chicago, and is worthy the consideration of the operatives of our mills and commended to the public at large:

GENTLEMEN:—It may interest you to know the prices of Refined Iron, offered me from store, New York, April 22d. I add forty cents per one hundred pounds freight by canal and lake, and figure on one hundred pounds laid down in Chicago.

Pittsburgh, to meet these prices, must sell as follows, adding freight to Chicago at forty-five cents per one hundred pounds:

	New York.	Pittsburgh.
Bar Iron, 1½ to 4x⅜ to 1..	$4 64	$4 19
" " ½ to 1¼x⅜ to 1..	4 64	4 19
" " 1x⅜ to ½.........	4 64	4 19
Horse Shoe, ⅝ to 1 inch....	5 64	5 19
⅝, ¾ and ⅞ round and sq'r.	4 64	4 19
1 to 1½ " "	4 64	4 19
½ and 9-16 " "	4 87	4 42
⅜ and 7-16 " "	5 31	4 86
5-16 " "	5 53	5 08
¼ " "	5 98	5 53
3-16 " "	7 09	6 64
⅝ Hoop, No. 20..............	6 87	6 42
⅝ " No. 22..............	8 44	7 99

And so on through other sizes. You will see that bar iron costs about six per cent. less than four and a half cents, Pittsburgh rates. But observe that their bar iron line includes one to six by three-eighths to one, and the classifications on various sizes makes a large difference in favor of New York. On some sizes of iron you will notice the difference as compared with Pittsburgh four and a half cent rates, is very heavy: for example, five-eighths, three quarters and seven-eighths round and square, twelve per cent., and much greater in some of the smaller sizes, and on small hoops.

New York beats Philadelphia all to pieces now, and as navigation is opened, New York has a chance at the lake trade, and I think at less than forty cents per hundred pounds freight, probably at thirty-three or thirty-five cents. We pay fifty-five cents from Philadelphia and sixty cents from Troy, all rail, and thirty-five cents from Ohio. Freights are entirely too high from Pittsburgh, and is so much tax on your trade in favor of other points.

Now, the question comes up, what are we to do in the face of these facts? Will the operatives continue to pursue their present suicidal course, and force the legitimate trade of Pittsburgh to other points, when, after a while, it may be difficult to persuade it back again? They ought to see that we can't pay old prices and compete with figures as above. They must submit to the inevitable force of circumstances and logic of events. They seem to look at their employers as the power against which they have to contend, and not at the prices of trade acting upon their employers and capital. The working men must soon learn the fact that this point, to meet the demands of trade successfully, must be enabled to put common bar iron into market next fall at four cents per pound, or possibly at three and three-fourths cents. To do this, labor in all departments, from the production of the raw material to its finished state, must succumb! Wink and wince at it as you please, you must stare it in the face eventually. Just now there is a margin in nails and hoops, but how long will it be so? But a little while, when "we shall all be in the same boat." Then we can all sing the same chorus, "Root hog, or die."

CONSUMPTION.

This scourge of humanity, bane of civilization, with despotic sway has insinuated itself into all classes, grades and conditions of life. Neither age, sex nor rank is exempt from its ravages. Its icy hand falls alike upon youthful innocence and hoary-headed age. Some of the prominent symptoms are Cough, Expectoration, Shortness of Breath, Irritation about the Lungs and Chest, darting Pains in the side and back, Emaciation, and a general negative condition of the whole system. It is authentically stated that one-fifth of the inhabitants of this country and Europe die of Consumption. No disease has been more thoroughly studied, and its nature less understood; there is no disease upon which exists a greater diversity of opinion, and no disease which has more completely baffled all medical skill and remedial agencies. Persons suffering from this dread disease, or any of its concomitants, should lose no time in possessing themselves of the proper Remedy, in order that they may stay its ravages, and be restored to health.

The Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON'S Prepared Prescription for the cure of CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all Throat and LUNG AFFECTIONS, has now been in use over ten years with the most marked success.

The Remedy, prepared under Mr. Wilson's personal supervision, also a pamphlet containing the original Prescription, with full and explicit directions for preparation and use, together with a short history of his case, may be obtained of the following reliable Druggist in this State, viz:

NOTICE—TO THE BONDHOLDERS OF THE ERIE CANAL COMPANY.—By an act approved March 15th, 1867, the Erie Canal Company is authorized to enlarge their canal to such size as they may deem expedient.
The Act authorizes the increase of the capital stock to $1,500,000, and authorizes the Company to receive in payment for subscriptions to stock any bonds, judgments or other indebtedness of the company. The act further provides that "When the present indebtedness of the company or three-fourths of the same shall have been converted into capital stock, the said company is hereby authorized to execute a mortgage of the said canal, its rights, privileges and franchises to their trustees, and issue coupon or other bonds to the amount of one million of dollars, bearing seven per centum interest per annum and not running over forty years, and secured by the mortgage aforesaid, to be expended by the said trustees under the direction of the Board of Directors in the enlargement of the said canal, and with power to sell said bonds at such prices as the Directors may deem expedient."
The company proposes to enlarge the canal to pass boats of from 200 to 250 tons burden, and as there can be little doubt of the canal, when enlarged, paying the interest on its present debt and stock, in addition to the interest on the new bonds, it is hoped the Bondholders will promptly convert their bonds into stock, to enable the company to proceed at once to make arrangements for enlarging. The stock books of the company will be open for the conversion of the present bonds into stock, on and after the FIRST DAY OF MAY, 1867.
By order of the Board.
A. H. CAUGHEY, Secretary.

DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP—The copartnership heretofore existing between the undersigned under the name of FOERSTER & SCHWARZ, was dissolved by mutual consent on the first day of February, 1867, the entire interest of C. F. Schwarz having been purchased by Edward Foerster, who will continue the Wall Paper and Fancy Goods business at the same stand, No. 164 Smithfield street. All debts owing to the said partnership are to be received by the said Edward Foerster, and all demands on the said partnership are to be presented to him for payment.
EDWARD FOERSTER,
C. F. SCHWARZ.

HAVING SOLD MY ENTIRE INTEREST in the Wall Paper and Fancy Goods business to EDWARD FOERSTER, who will continue the business at the old stand, I would cheerfully recommend him to our former patrons and the public generally.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

M. Blondeau, of Paris, by combining gun cotton with ammonia, has succeeded in obviating the danger arising from spontaneous combustion by the heating of the mass.

The holders of the bonds of the Mexican Republic are not well pleased because Mr. Seward does not order General Lew. Campbell to hasten from New Orleans to San Luis Potosi, and there present his credentials to Juarez. Such action would doubtless advance the value of the bonds which have been so lavishly distributed or sold for nominal sums, but it is by no means certain that Juarez is the bona fide head of an existing Republican government in Mexico.

The Massachusetts Legislature has before it a bill chartering a Pneumatic Dispatch Company, to operate between Boston and Roxbury, and the measure will undoubtedly be passed. A similar organization was, we believe, chartered by the New Jersey Legislature to construct a tube between Newark and New York.

The Soldiers and Sailors' National Orphan Homestead, at Gettysburg, is now filled to its utmost capacity, and is to be enlarged. There are numerous applications for the admission of orphans, and they have to be refused on account of the want of room. The Managers, apart from the ordinary sources of supply, desire to raise $50,000 to enlarge the Homestead, and they have appealed to the citizens of Philadelphia to aid in raising this fund.

Bed Bugs, according to a lady correspondent, have a great aversion to salt. She states that if the articles and places infested with bed bugs are washed with salt water, and the crevices in which the vermin hide are filled with it, they will give no more trouble.

The money crisis at Havana has developed a new branch of industry—that of filing the ounces and smaller gold coins in circulation in Cuba. Some enterprising individual seems to be making a good thing out of it, as nearly every ounce has lost from fifty cents to two dollars and a half, and our merchants will be compelled to weigh every coin, as the loss on shipping the coin would entail a great injury.

Among the articles sent by Prussia to the French Exposition at Paris, was a colossal equestrian statue of the King, represented in warlike attitude and with a drawn sword. We do not know whether the statue has yet been set up; but if it has been, it must be a very suggestive study to Napoleon and the wits of Paris at this crisis.

The Winona Republican says: "Throughout the country the farmers are sowing a larger quantity of wheat than ever before, and have much more land under cultivation for other crops. We are informed by a gentleman from Quincy, Olmstead county, that within a radius of two miles of that place there are five hundred acres more ground broken than there were last year. The same thing is true in various sections of the State."

The Japanese now in Paris take two meals a day of food dressed in the French manner, but about noon they also partake of a dish of their own country, which would be hardly appreciated in France. It consists of raw fish cut into small pieces, on which is poured an Indian curry sauce, so strong that they cannot possibly know what they are eating. This they take with evident relish.

The raising of the ships sunk in Sebastopol harbor is proceeding slowly. The masts and rigging have been removed, but the hulls still remain six or seven fathoms deep in the muddy bottom.

A man in Albany was relieved of a fish bone in his neck, which had been there near twenty years. It developed itself in a tumor.

English music is creeping into jealous, exclusive Cockney Paris at last, under the auspices of M. Pasdeloup. Two of Wallace's overtures have been played at his concerts; and some time ago was given "Bon soir," an unaccompanied chorus by Bishop—a version of his "Sleep, gentle lady."

Several Coal-Mine dramas, if they may be so described, have been variously successful in London. "Lost in London" is the best of them. Another is called, "Life in the Coal Pits." Commenting upon them, one critic tersely remarks: "As 'sensations' are likely to lose their zest through lack of a corresponding sense, so is the long-idolized workingman beginning to lose his idolators, and to find himself voted a bore."

The average number of daily arrivals at the Cleveland hotels lately have been over four hundred. Pretty good for Cleveland.

A muscular youth of Cleveland, named Gallagher, aspires to the pugilistic championship of America, and is matched to fight one Jimmy Elliott. Gallagher's deportment is described as being gentlemanly and unassuming.

The Lyceum of Natural History of Williams College proposes to send an expedition to the volcanic regions of South America, under the direction of Professors Orton and Hopkins. It is proposed to start the expedition in July. Fifteen thousand dollars are required, and the alumni and the friends of science are invited to send in contributions of money.

The Weeling Intelligencer gives the following interesting piece of information: We are told that no less than seventeen weddings took place in this city last Thursday. Thirty marriage licenses had been issued from the Recorder's office since the first of the month up to yesterday, seven of them during the present week.

The contest between rebels under General Beauregard and the Union men for the control of the New Orleans and Mississippi Railroad, of which the General has been president, is another of the signs of the times. It seems that the rebels were outvoted, and therefore excluded the votes of the city of New Orleans and the State, in order to retain their control. General Grant has been appealed to, and Sheridan will probably have the matter to settle.

The English reports of the Paris Exposition are gradually assuming a more flattering character, though John still finds much to complain about. We get some idea of the magnitude of this show by the statement, that there are more than fifty thousand different exhibitors represented. The greatest number ever before gathered was at the London Exhibition, in 1862, when nearly 29,000 were represented. But this is an omnium gatherum—a combination of all shows—a horse show, cattle show, poultry show, dog show, plowing match, a show to illustrate the whole history of labor throughout the civilized world.

PERSONAL.

—While Parepa was in New Haven, last week, she went one evening to the depot to meet her husband, who was to arrive soon after dark, and had the driver bring him to her carriage, but not make known her presence. Seeing a lady occupant, Rosa took the opposite seat, and, like a model husband, paid no attention to the sly touches of the feet and advances of his female companion, until she boldly seated herself by his side, but he did not discover the joke till her merry laugh rang out at his affright and virtuous struggle to escape her caresses.

—On Thursday evening last, at the Church of the Ascension, in New York, Mr. Ambrose C. Kingsland, Jr., son of ex-Mayor Kingsland, was married to Miss Catharine, daughter of Wm. H. Aspinwall, Esq. This was one of the most brilliant weddings of the season. The reception took place Friday evening, at the residence of the bride's father, corner of University place and Tenth street. The doors were canopied to the curb-stone, while rich carpets protected the feet of the fair ones as they descended from the carriages.

—The following words are attributed to Marshal Niel, Minister of War: "Let me know the day when the Emperor Napoleon wishes to have five hundred thousand men on the Eastern frontier, and they shall be there."

—John Kirwan, a Fenian Head Center, who was under arrest in Dublin and confined in the Hospital, escaped on the 10th inst. He had been very closely watched, but the officer in charge having left him for a moment, Kirwan bolted, and was seen no more.

—The Hon. DeWitt C. Littlejohn, a distinguished artisan of Oswego, has determined to remove to Buffalo.

—Mrs. Nancy Rotch died at New Bedford, Mass., on Thursday last, in the ninety-first year of her age. She was the widow of Francis Rotch, Esq., one of the owners of the ship Dartmouth, celebrated as the vessel which brought into Boston harbor the tea—"poisonous herb" which so excited the wrath of good people of the then colony, and which the "Fifty Mohawks," known as the "Boston Tea Party," in the year 1773, threw into the salt water.

—A letter dated Paris, April 12th, says: Yesterday, the Emperor reviewed the troops now in Paris, and distributed decorations and military medals to officers, under-officers and soldiers. He looks pale and and care-worn; they continue to say he is not well. The Prince Imperial is really still very feeble, though improving; he has gone through a painful surgical operation, and it is reported that his leg still requires splints. The Empress is seriously unhappy over the prolonged ailments of the Prince Imperial.

—The New York Times corrects the statement of the World that Mr. Seward has "kept a private diary during the last six years," and adds: "We have heard it said that Mr. Seward, when he first became part of Mr. Lincoln's Administration began such a diary, with the purpose to make it a record of all the private deliberations, decisions, opinions, incidents, &c., of the times; but that, after a few days' trial, gave it up from a conviction that it would of necessity be of so personal a character, and would consist so largely of the record of his own participation in public affairs, as to be unduly and offensively egotistical."

—Mr. Dana's new evening paper in New York has been postponed till September. A contemporary remarks very truly that the day is gone when mere party papers can succeed, or a first class journal can be established except through great perseverance, many trials and excellent judgment.

—The Newark, New Jersey, Journal advocates the nomination of George Peabody for the Presidency. Mr. Peabody is an enterprising merchant and a very excellent man; he has given largely of his substance to promote beneficial objects and is deserving of the gratitude of his country. But he has lived too long abroad and has become too much Anglicised in his ideas and habits of thought to make a suitable Chief Magistrate of the United States.

—It was lately rumored in Paris that Eugenie had been made ill by the publication of a pamphlet, assuming to state facts of her early history which the Imperial lady would have everybody else forget, if she cannot help remembering them herself. Of course the book will be suppressed in Europe, but why does not some enterprising publisher procure "advance sheets" and get out a cheap American edition?

—An American gentleman now in Germany writes: "And this brings me to speak of the reverence in which Lincoln is held. In traveling, I am often questioned about our condition, and rarely does the conversation close without a remark on the greatness of the man. I hear in popular lectures, too, in Heidelberg, splendid tributes to his memory."

—A private letter made public says of our artists' contributions to the French exhibition: "The French find in American pictures a great truthfulness to nature, but they say that they want a little more strength and color, a little more pallette as they express it. Church, Durand, Kensett and Gifford seem to be most liked. Bierstadt they know by the Dusseldorf pictures—he was nothing new. Johnson and Homer are liked best as figure painters."

SPECIAL NOTICE.

☞ HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT—PRACTICE VS. THEORY—The unparalleled success which attends these remedies in their radical cures, of Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Kings Evil, Barber's Itch, Ulcer, Sore leg, Ringworm, and all skin diseases would be deemed incredible, were it not substantiated by "a cloud of living witnesses." Such beneficent results cannot fail to challenge our admiration for the genius which displays such science in the extirpation of disease and in the triumph of health! Sold by all Druggists.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

CITY MATTERS.

CITY COUNCILS.—The regular monthly meeting of the City Councils will be held this evening.

ROW BOAT SOLD.—The Undine Boat Club of this city have disposed of their barge "Albatross."

OVERCOAT STOLEN.—Some thief entered the room of Mr. J. Kendricks, in Red Lion Hotel, on Friday night, and stole therefrom a valuable overcoat.

WILL COMPETE.—The Hope Fire Company, of Allegheny, announce their willingness to compete for the Prize Hose Carriage at the coming Soldiers' Monumental Fair.

RECOVERED.—Rev. Father Hickey, of St. Paul's Cathedral, who has been confined with a severe attack of sickness at the Mercy Hospital for two months past, has entirely recovered.

GEN. ALEX. HAYS.—In a conspicuous place upon the Soldiers' Monument of Venango county, located on the public square, Franklin, is recorded the name of the gallant General Alexander Hays, of this city, who fell in the battle of the Wilderness.

COLORS AWARDED.—The handsome set of boat colors offered by the Howard Boat Club, to the organization which disposed of the greatest number of tickets to their ball, was awarded to the Duquesne Club, they having sold one hundred and ninety tickets.

STRAY HORSES RECOVERED.—The two horses which strayed from the premises of Mr. Blackburn, Superintendent of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, about a week since, were found astray yesterday on the farm of Mr. Hutchinson, on Squirrel Hill, and returned to the owner.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The new Ames' Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. W. F. Lauck, pastor, on the corner of Third and Ferry streets, was dedicated yesterday with appropriate ceremonies to the worship of Almighty God. Bishop Thompson delivered a sermon in the evening.

BRAKEMAN KILLED.—A man named W. J. Gilbert, employed as a brakeman on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, was killed on Saturday morning, near Dixon, Indiana, by falling from a freight train under the wheels, which passed over him.

WALTON ENGINE HOUSE.—The new engine house of the Walton Hose Company, of East Birmingham, is nearly completed. It is a very handsome frame edifice of two stories, surmounted with a cupola of architectural beauty, in which is placed an alarm bell.

MAN FOUND DROWNED.—Coroner Clawson received a dispatch yesterday from McKeesport, stating that the body of an unknown man had been found floating in the Monongahela river, near that place. The Coroner left yesterday afternoon to hold an inquest on the body, and will return this morning.

FATAL ACCIDENT—MAN KILLED.—The following telegraphic dispatch was received at this office Saturday noon: "OIL CITY, PA., April 27th, 1867—Jefferson Focze, an employee of the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, was killed this morning opposite this place, by an embankment caving on him. His remains were sent home for burial."

TOBACCO STOLEN.—On Saturday night, some thief or thieves stole from the tobacco kiln in the rear of James Murphy's tobacco warehouse, at No. 202 Liberty street, between St. Clair and Sixth streets, five caddies of tobacco. Notice of the robbery was given to the Mayor's police, but no trace of the thieves or the stolen tobacco has been discovered.

DELEGATES ELECTED.—At a meeting of the Crystal Spring Division, No. 31, Sons of Temperance, held on Saturday evening, the following members were elected delegates to represent them in the County Convention, to be held in this city to-morrow: John Wilhelm, Jr., W. H. Evans, Horace S. Snowden, Wm. D. Vanhorn and Harry Kirkland.

NIGHT MESSAGES.—As will be seen by the card of Saml. L. Gilson, Manager, the Western Union Telegraph Company now send night messages over their lines, and deliver the same the succeeding morning at greatly reduced rates. For example, a message of twenty words from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia thirty cents, and a message of one hundred and twenty words will be transmitted for ninety cents.

HEARING TO-DAY.—Edward Wilkes, the man who was arrested for robbing injured passengers on the train which was wrecked on the Pan Handle Railroad, in Washington county, a month or two since, will have a hearing this afternoon before Justice John Grayson, of Washington county. Wilkes, it will be remembered, was brought to this city for a hearing, but the robbery having been committed in Washington county, he was sent there.

RELIEF FOR THE SOUTH.—The total contributions in this city, received up to Saturday night, amounted to the generous sum of $5,238 75. The citizens of Uniontown, Greensburgh, Indiana, Shoustown, and some of the adjacent villages, sent in liberal contributions, which helped to swell the aggregate to the creditable amount received. The benefit given at the Varieties' Theatre for the fund realized $435.

SOUTHERN RELIEF MEETINGS.—Public meetings will be held this week for the purpose of securing material aid for the destitute people of the South, as follows: Moon township, at Sharon Church, on Tuesday, at two o'clock P. M.; Findley township, at Clinton Church, on Wednesday, at six o'clock P. M.; Mifflin township, at Lebanon Church, on Thursday, at three o'clock P. M.; Jefferson township, at Eleven Mile House, on Friday, at three o'clock P. M.; Robinson township, at church (formerly Aiken's), on Saturday, at three o'clock P. M.

THE SABLE IRON WORKS.—The Evening Advocate of Saturday says: "A delegation of Iron Boilers visited the office of Zug & Co., this morning, with a view of making arrangements for running the boiling department of the works. The firm being desirous of having the whole mill put into operation of course nothing permanent could be effected. After a social interchange of sentiments upon the present position of affairs, and a friendly walk through their superb establishment, the parties separated with the best of feeling."

BURGLARY IN ALLEGHENY.—At a late hour on Friday night, or early Saturday morning, the furniture ware-room and dwelling of Mr. John Bernhardt, on Ohio street, near Sandusky, Allegheny, was entered by burglars, who effected an entrance by forcing open a window in the rear of the house. The store room and lower part of the dwelling was thoroughly ransacked, and the things scattered around promiscuously, but nothing valuable was carried off. The thieves were evidently in search of money, but were disappointed.

BIRMINGHAM ENGINE HOUSE.—The contract for the building of the new engine house for the Mechanics' Fire Company, of Birmingham, has been awarded to Mr. Sorg, he having agreed to build it, according to the plans and specifications, for the sum of six thousand five hundred dollars. A Building Committee of three from the Borough Council has been appointed, consisting of Messrs. Fred. L. Jimsen, S. McIlwaine and Dr. James Kerr, who are authorized to employ some responsible person to superintend the erection of the new engine house according to plans and specifications.

THE MCCOY TRAGEDY.—The Steubenville Herald, of Friday afternoon, says: "State of Ohio vs. John J. McCoy and Nancy Mushrush, on trial before Judge Martin, as aiders and abettors in the murder of Joseph E. McDonald at McCoy's Station, on the 6th inst., and which has occupied the Court since last Monday, was brought to a close yesterday, resulting in John J. McCoy being remanded to jail to answer a charge of murder, and requiring Miss Mushrush to give bail in the sum of $3,000 for her appearance at the June term of the Court of Common Pleas, in default of which she was committed."

YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE SOCIETY.—The Young Men's Bible Society of Pittsburgh will hold their Forty-ninth Anniversary Meeting, this evening, commencing at 7½ o'clock, in the First Baptist church, Fourth street (Rev. J. S. Dickerson's). The order of exercises will be as follows: 1. Chant, by the Choir. 2. Reading of Scriptures, by Rev. S. Scovil. 3. Prayer, by Rev. H. Miller. 4. Reading of the Reports of the Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer and Librarian. 5. Address. 6. Address by Rev. A. M. Milligan. 7. Reports of Committee on Nomination of new Board of Managers and action of Reports. 8. Benediction by Rev. J. S. Dickerson.

SUDDEN DEATH IN DUQUESNE BOROUGH.—In the absence of Coroner Clawson, who is at McKeesport, Alderman Butler held an inquest yesterday afternoon on the body of a German named Conrad Badenfield, who died suddenly at his residence in Duquesne Borough. The deceased, it appears, had been suffering from cancer for some time past. Complaining of feeling unwell, he retired to bed on Saturday afternoon about four o'clock, and died about one o'clock yesterday morning. The jury returned a verdict of death from general debility. The deceased was about forty-five years of age. He leaves a wife and five children, who were dependent entirely on him for support, and who are now left in destitute circumstances.

CHILD SMOTHERED TO DEATH.—An infant child of Mr. McCann, residing on Center Avenue, Pitt township, near the Passenger Railroad Station, was found dead in bed on Saturday morning. The child was about four weeks old, and was apparently in good health when the parents retired on Friday night. Saturday morning when Mrs. McCann awoke, the child was lying so quietly that she became alarmed, and on making a close examination she found that it was dead. Alderman J. A. Butler, of the Sixth ward, held an inquest on the body on Saturday afternoon, Coroner Clawson being absent holding an inquest on the remains of Mr. Wright. The jury returned a verdict that the child came to its death from smothering, caused by being tightly wrapped up in clothes in the bed.

A DETERMINED BURGLAR.—Three attempts were made early on Saturday morning to burglariously enter the house of Mrs. Wilson, No. 40 Ross street. Shortly after midnight a son of Mrs. Wilson heard some person forcing open the shutter in the rear part of the house, and walking cautiously out of the front door, summoned a watchman. The burglar, however, heard their movements and fled. Mr. Wilson retired, and in a few minutes afterwards he was aroused by some person forcing open the window shutter in the front part of the house. He arose, and going down stairs the burglar again fled. Mr. Wilson again retired to bed, and was awakened a third time by another window shutter in the front part of the house being forced open. He walked cautiously down stairs, but before he reached the parlor, the burglar, in attempting to raise the window, broke a pane of glass, which caused him to beat a hasty retreat. He did not make his appearance again.

Change of Schedule—Fast Train.

A new time table goes into operation on the Pennsylvania Railroad to-day, which will be found in another column. There is some change in the accommodation trains, and also in the through trains. There will be a new through train from New York to St. Louis, which will make the fastest time known to American railroads. This train will leave New York at five o'clock in the evening, reaching Pittsburgh at 9:20 next morning—or a little over sixteen hours—and will reach Cincinnati in twenty-nine hours.

The time table of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway has also been changed, the through trains mostly leaving earlier than formerly. There are also changes in the arrival and departure of accommodation trains. This change takes effect to-day.

A change in the hours of departure and arrival on the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad took place yesterday. The correct schedule will be found elsewhere.

There is also a change in the time table of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, which the patrons of that important railway will find in another column.

Public Amusements.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—The present will be benefit week at this establishment, the popular comedienne, Mrs. Emma Skerrett, being the beneficiary this evening. Mrs. Skerrett is a most agreeable performer, and as a soubrette actress none has preceded her on the Pittsburgh stage who has been so uniformly successful in pleasing her audience. She is always attentive to her duty, and in whatever character she has appeared during the season has rendered it faithfully. She presents a very attractive bill for this evening, not the least interesting feature of which will be the first appearance upon the stage of a young lady of this city, who will essay the character of "Mrs. Younghusband," in the comedy of "Married Life." Mrs. Skerrett deserves and should have a crowded audience.

LEAK'S FAREWELL.—To-morrow evening that clever actor and accomplished gentleman, Wm. H. Leak, will take his farewell benefit. He goes hence to the Chestnut Street Theater, Philadelphia. He will have a "bumper at parting."

VARIETIES.—Manager Myers announces an exciting drama for performance this evening. Mlle. Laurent, the charming danseuse, the "Boquet of Beauty," and the excellent comedy corps, will all appear this evening in an attractive entertainment.

THE APOCALYPSE.—The great tableaux of the "Book of Revelations" will be open to-morrow evening, in Masonic Hall. They come among us with an excellent reputation, crowded houses being the rule wherever they have been exhibited. They have just been exhibited for two weeks at Chicago, where the hall was crowded every afternoon and evening.

CIRCUS.—Thayer & Noyes have pitched their tent in Birmingham, and will give the citizens of that thriving borough two entertainments. It is an excellent show.

The Argument List will be taken up and disposed of during this week; also, the Orphans' Court and Quarter Sessions lists.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—Before Judge Mellon.

Adam Williams, the boy who was committed to jail several days since by Justice Stephens, of Union township, on a charge of committing a rape on the person of a little girl named Margaret Jones, was brought before court on Saturday, on a writ of habeas corpus, with a view of obtaining his release. The boy is not yet fourteen years of age; the girl does not appear to be more than eleven. Mr. Owens appeared for the lad, and produced several witnesses, among them the parents of the prisoner, who were examined in regard to the age of the relator. The evidence showed that the boy was thirteen years of age last July. Judge Mellon ordered the discharge of the boy on the grounds that he had not yet reached the age which would render him amenable to the law defining the crime with which he was charged.

Thomas Hallowell, committed to jail by Alderman Strain some time since to await trial on a charge of adultery, was brought into court, and a motion made to reduce the bail from $1,500 to $500. The court granted the request, and the defendant was released on giving the required security.

Gerhard Schmoll, who was committed to jail some time since, for failing to procure bail to keep the peace, was released by court on his own recognizance.

Thomas Ryan, who was arrested on an attachment about a week since, for failing to appear as a witness in a case after he had been summoned, was brought into court and discharged from custody.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Williams.

The jury in the case of Mary Ann Daly vs. James Millingar, previously reported, returned on Saturday with a verdict for the plaintiff for the sum of one thousand dollars.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—Before Judge Mellon.

In the case of David F. Henry vs. Union Refining and Storing Company, the jury, on Saturday, render a verdict for the defendants.

The counsel for the plaintiff, in the case of Meanor vs. Brightman, made a motion for a new trial.

Slight Fires.

On Friday afternoon about four o'clock, a fire was discovered issuing from the roof of the house of Miss Simpson, a short distance from the Soho Bridge, in Pitt township. The alarm was promptly given throughout the neighborhood, and the flames speedily extinguished by the neighbors. The Relief hose carriage was on the ground, but its services were not needed. The fire caught from the chimney, and was confined to a small space. It was extinguished without serious damage.

On Saturday afternoon, about three o'clock, an alarm of fire was sounded from Box No. 65, corner of Penn and Smith streets. The alarm was caused by the burning of the roof of the oil refinery of Messrs. Brewer, Burke & Co., located on Butler street, above Smith, in the Ninth Ward, which caught from a defective chimney. The firemen were promptly on the ground and extinguished the fire before much damage had been done. The loss is slight.

The alarm at half past nine o'clock on Saturday night, from Box 21, at the Allegheny Engine House, was caused by the burning of soot in the chimney of the confectionery store of W. P. Hunker & Co., on the corner of Liberty and Sixth streets. No damage was done.

An alarm was struck from Box 62, at Independence Engine House, at fifteen minutes past four o'clock yesterday morning, which was caused by the burning of two ash boxes belonging to James Little, which were in a shed on Mulberry alley, near Lamber street, Ninth ward. The fire caught from the hot ashes, which was placed in the box on Saturday night. The flames were extinguished before any damage was done.

About six o'clock yesterday morning a fire was discovered in a shed in the rear of Grace Church, on the corner of Webster and Grant streets, Third ward. An alarm was struck from Box 27, and the firemen arrived on the ground promptly, and succeeded in staying the flames from spreading. The loss is slight.

Suicides—Two Men Hang Themselves.

An old man by the name of Wright, residing about seven miles from this city, on the Brownsville Turnpike Road, committed suicide on Friday night, by hanging himself. It is not known at what hour the rash deed was committed, but the lifeless body was discovered hanging to a tree near the house on Saturday morning. The deceased was seventy-five years of age, and it is said that his mind was somewhat impaired. Coroner Clawson held an inquest on the body on Saturday afternoon, and a verdict of death from suicide was rendered by the jury.

Yesterday (Sunday) afternoon, about four o'clock, the lifeless body of a man was found hanging in an old deserted log house, on the farm of Mr. James McGonnigle, in Chartiers township, near the foot of Brunot's Island, in the Ohio river. It appears that two little daughters of Mr. Gonnigle had gone to the log house in search of some hogs which had strayed away, when they found the body suspended from a joist, by a clothes line. His hat and coat were found on the floor near him. The deceased was a young man and unknown. No papers were found on his person that would lead to his identity. A number of the residents of that neighborhood called to see the body, but none recognized it. Coroner Clawson will probably hold an inquest to-day.

Young Men's Christian Association.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Rev. Squier's, Sixth street, on Saturday evening. Through some inadvertence, no publicity was given through Saturday's papers, so that the meeting was not as large as expected. The exercises were, however, very spirited and interesting. In addition to the usual business of reports from committees, &c., an amendment to the Constitution was, on its second reading, adopted unanimously, by which "any person, inclusive of ladies may become a participating member of the Association." An amendment changing the night of monthly meeting from the fourth Saturday to the fourth Tuesday evening of each month, was read and laid over for consideration at next meeting. A list of one hundred and twenty-eight new members was proposed, and handed to the Committee on Membership. The Association is in a very flourishing condition, with about five hundred members, and their new and attractive parlor and reading rooms at No. 23 Fifth street, are open to all.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

[Before Alderman Morrow.]

WIFE VS. HUSBAND.

John G. Baum was arrested on Saturday, charged with assault and battery and surety of the peace, on oath of his wife, Mrs. Magdalena Baum. The wife alleges that her husband threw her down and choked her, and also threatened to strike her with a poker. The parties reside at Sharpsburg. The accused was held to bail for trial at court.

[Before Alderman Strain.]

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Richard Sloan on Saturday made complaint against one Mrs. Ann McCarthy, for assault and battery, alleging that she struck him in the face. The defendant was arrested by officer Wilmot, and held to bail for a hearing to-day.

[Before Alderman Mullin, of Allegheny.]

CUTTING HIS BOARD BILL.

Mrs. Martha Robinson appeared on Saturday and lodged an information against James Griffith, for obtaining board under false pretenses. The prosecutrix keeps a boarding house in the Fourth ward, Allegheny, and alleges that Griffith obtained from her boarding to the amount of $23 50, under false and fraudulent representations, and that he is about going to Chicago, with the evident intention of defrauding her of the amount due her. A warrant for his arrest was issued.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.

George Gardner lodged an information for malicious mischief against Jacob Zinswester, Nicholas Sweitzer, Jacob Metz, John Frazier, Daniel Matthews, Christian Schaub and John Taylor. The prosecutor alleges that the defendants entered the house leased by him, on the corner of Bank Lane and Voegtly street, and maliciously tore down the doors, shutters, window sashes, took out the grates, etc. Warrants for their arrest have been issued.

[Before Alderman Donaldson.]

ALLEGED FORGERY OF A CHECK.

Officer John Sarber on Saturday arrested a man named John M. Beck, charged before Alderman Donaldson, with forgery, on oath of Mr. W. H. Cassidy, Cashier of the Second National Bank. Mr. Cassidy alleges that on Saturday morning Beck presented a check at the counter of the bank in which he is engaged, purporting to be drawn by Messrs. Carroll & Baum, lumber merchants, payable to Mr. Beck's order. The forgery was detected at once, and an information made as above stated. Beck's explanation of the matter is that he was doing business for Messrs. Carroll & Baum; that he needed the money for the purpose of paying their debts; and that neither of the members of the firm being in the city, he thought he had a right to do as he did. He was committed to jail, in default of one thousand dollars bail, for a hearing at half-past four o'clock this afternoon.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY AT GRAIN ELEVATOR.

A man named Patrick Barrow was arrested and taken before the above magistrate on Saturday, on a charge of highway robbery, preferred by Peter Ackerman. It is alleged that Wm. Darsey, while intoxicated, was lying down near the Grain Elevator, on Liberty street, and while in this condition, Barrow "went through him," taking a silver watch, seventy cents (all the money he had), and a handkerchief. He was caught in the act by the prosecutor, who arrested and conveyed him before the Alderman. The accused was committed to jail for a hearing to-day.

[Before Justice Smith, of Shaler Township.]

STABBING AFFRAY AT ETNA.

A stabbing affray occurred at the tavern of Patrick Dunn, in the village of Etna, Shaler township, on Thursday last, during which George W. McCutcheon was stabbed with a knife by one of the parties, in the face, the knife entering below the right eye and producing a painful wound. Information was made before Justice J. S. Smith, charging two of the parties with felonious assault and battery. Warrants were issued and the parties were arrested at the house of a man named Kelly, in Sharpsburg. They were held for a hearing.

[Before Alderman Lynch.]

LARCENY OF A COPPER STILL.

Domenec Gallagher made an information on Saturday against some persons whose names are unknown, for larceny. The prosecutor states that a copper still, valued at one hundred and fifty dollars, belonging to him, was stolen from the Allegheny wharf at the foot of Irwin street, and rolled into the river. It was afterwards taken out by a man, who took it to his lot and offered it for sale. A search warrant was placed in officer Connor's hands, who took possession of the still. Mr. Keyser, Deputy United States Collector of Internal Revenue, claims the still as being part of a whisky distillery seized by him, for evasions of the revenue law.

[Before Alderman Neillie, of Allegheny.]

BLASPHEMY.

Gottleib Bowers and William Bowers were arrested on Saturday, an information having been lodged against them by James Rodney, for blasphemy. In default of three hundred dollars bail each, they were committed to jail for a hearing today. They subsequently procured bail and were released.

[Before Justice Scriba, of Reserve Township.]

LARCENY AS BAILEE.

Charles Paulman was charged before the above magistrate, on Saturday, with larceny as bailee, John Bratsch being prosecutor. The deponent alleges that he left in the possession of the defendant, who is a watchmaker, a watch to be repaired; and upon calling to get it afterwards, the defendant refused to return it. The accused was arrested, and in default of five hundred dollars bail, was committed to jail for trial.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH:

Gentlemen—I have been severely afflicted with paralysis of the stomach, and even given up by several eminent physicians. I have tried several remedies of a tonic and stimulating nature, but without any good result. Some three or four months ago I was induced to try your STOMACH BITTERS, and have used about seven or eight bottles with a decided benefit. My health is greatly improved; and I consider your Bitters the only efficacious remedy of their kind in the market. If used as directed they will always prove a sovereign remedy to those afflicted with dyspepsia or other diseases of a like nature.

Respectfully yours,
LYMAN MUDGE.

HASTINGS, Dakota Co., Minn., Aug. 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

Gentlemen—Have sold your Bitters ever since they were brought out, and consider them the best among the many before the public. Those brought out since the tax has been imposed on spirits are trash. I never recommend them.

Respectfully and truly yours,
R. J. MARVIN.

COLON, St. Joseph Co., Mich., July 31, 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH:

Gentlemen—I consider your Bitters a sovereign balm for a thousand ails.

Yours, truly, D. C. REYNOLDS, M. D.

THE GREAT EXHIBITION OF THE VISIONS OF ST. JOHN, AT MASONIC HALL, TUESDAY NIGHT.—From all we have heard and read of this exhibition, we judge it will take our citizens by storm, when opened here on Tuesday evening. In fact, we predict a greater rush to witness this work than to anything that has yet been brought to our city. The press, the clergy and the people everywhere pronounce it to be one of the finest exhibitions ever witnessed, and almost divine in its character, illustrating, as it does, the grandest subjects in the world.

We copy the following notice of this exhibition from the Louisville Democrat. It was written by a clergyman while the exhibition was in that city:

"Of the mastership of the artist who designed the tableaux, we may say he is certainly at home in his profession, if such we may call it. Every scene is a living representation of what St. John saw, from the hearing of the first angel's voice to the day of judgment, when God sat upon the great white throne and saw the multitude assembled before Him, that He might choose from among them those that served Him, 'to dwell with Him forever,' who had their names recorded by the angels in the 'Book of Life.'

"These exhibitions have a power of influence over the minds of an audience, and we doubt whether there are but few, if any, who can come away without being impressed with the truth, that to be a Christian is to be like God."

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY EVENING, April 27, 1867.

Our local stock market was almost totally devoid of transactions during the past week. There is very little disposition to invest in any of the local securities at the present time. The market is without hope to improve it for a future rise, and parties are indifferent about making any new purchases.

Some improvement was felt in the local money market this week. There is an evident tending to greater ease and less pressure for loans. The plethora of money at the Eastern centers is being felt out here, and the belief is strengthened that our market will be fully supplied with all needful means for legitimate demands upon it.

—The New York quotations of the public securities, as received to-day by Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co., from their Eastern correspondents, Messrs. Jay Cooke & Co., show a great firmness in all the series:

—The Railway stock list at the New York Exchange continues to gain strength for an upward spring and summer speculation. There seems to be a sudden increase of demand for the stocks of the Western roads. We present below our usual quotations, as received daily by Mr. Bryan:

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, SATURDAY EVENING, April 27, 1867.

The general markets to-day were moderately active, but without any change in prices since our last issue. Trade, during the week, excepting flour, groceries and provisions, has been rather inactive. The current rumor of a resumption of work by several of the iron mills, the incoming week, has caused a more cheerful feeling among merchants. It is a well known fact that there is hardly a merchant doing business here but what has severely felt the effects of this long lock-out, and if brought to a termination, as it is now rumored, many of them may yet do a considerable spring trade, which will aid in paying some of the expenses which they have had to meet, without anything near a remuneration being received during the past several weeks. Flour continues excited, and selling off rapidly at the advance noted in our last report.

The receipts of leading articles of produce, per river and railroad, since our last, were as follows: Flour 618 bbls; apples 163 bbls; corn 761 sacks; barley 94 sacks; wheat 402 sacks; rye 134 sacks; oats 1,043 sacks and butter 41 packages.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale prices, unless otherwise stated:

APPLES—The market remains unchanged. Choice apples may be quoted, from store, at $5@5 25 ₱ bbl, and other kinds at from $2 50 to $4 50 ₱ bbl. We note sales of 20 bbls at $5; 10 bbls at $2 50 and 60 bbls at from $3 75 to $4 50 ₱ bbl.

BUTTER—Choice butter is in fair demand and better supply, but there has not been any change in price since our last. The tendency is downward. We note sales of 400 lbs very choice grass butter, at 35c ₱ lb; 12 packages prime roll at 30c; 4 do at 28c, and 10 do. at 25c ₱ lb.

BACON, LARD, &C—Trade continues moderately active. We quote from packers, as follows: Sugar cured hams 15¾c; canvassed do 16¾c; shoulders 9¾c to 10c; sides 11½c to 12c; dried beef 22½c; canvassed dried beef 23½c, and lard in tierces 13c ₱ lb.

LARD OIL—Manufacturers prices of lard oil are $1 10 for No. 1, and 90c for No. 2 ₱ gal.

CHEESE—We have reported sales of 22 boxes new Western Reserve prime at 16c, and 10 boxes Hamburg at 17@18c, and New York Goshen at 20@22c ₱ lb.

EGGS—The market is dull and well supplied with eggs. Prices have declined materially. We have reported sales of 13 bbls at 16c ₱ doz, and 20 bbls at 15c ₱ doz.

FLOUR—There has been no change in prices since our last, but the advance then noticed has been maintained to-day, and there was a continued activity in the market. The country demand, from all parts of Western Pennsylvania, is very heavy. Stocks are light, and the same report reaches us from all Western shipping points, and holders there manifest a disposition to advance prices. Whilst it is not likely that flour will go much higher, there is almost a certainty already manifest, that until the incoming crop shall have commenced arriving, there will be no decline of consequence from present current prices. Standard brands of spring wheat meet with a ready sale at $14 50 ₱ bbl.

GRAIN.—The receipts of wheat continue light, and it seems to be no longer a matter of doubt but that there is a great scarcity in the country, and this fact is becoming more manifest every week. It is yet nearly three months before there can be any receipts of new, and we may add another month to this number, before they will amount to a size sufficient to tell materially on the market. Although present high prices have greatly curtailed consumption, the stock in the country seems as if it will be inadequate to meet the demand, until harvest is over. We have no reported sales of wheat and can only report No. 2 spring (about the only kind received) nominally, $2 85@3 00 per bushel.

OATS.—The market appears a little weaker. We note sales of 200 bushels on the wharf at 60c, and one car delivered at 62c per bushel.

RYE—There is a fair demand. We note a sale of 1 car on the track, at $1 55 ₱ bush.

CORN—There is a good inquiry and a slight advance. We note sales of 3 cars yellow, in Allegheny, at $1 10 ₱ bush.

BARLEY—We quote at $1 10 from store. Very little doing.

HAY—Two lots baled sold on the wharf at $24@25 ₱ ton. Several wagon loads prime timothy, sold at the scales at $28@31 ₱ ton.

POTATOES—We quote from store at $2 75 ₱ bbl for Peachblows, and Buckeyes at $3 50 to $4 ₱ bbl.

METAL MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

We have only to repeat our report of dullness in Scotch pig iron, says the Iron Age. One or two large sales we understand were made in American, but at a reduced rate. In bars there is very little doing in store, without change of rate, and we believe nothing has been doing from ship. We quote as follows:

Copper—More quiet, and quotable 24@24½c, and previously a large investment in this metal occurred both here and in the West based upon its very low price, even estimated in specie.

Pig Iron—A few transactions have occurred at $38@40, for No. 1, according to brand, and at $34@35. The demand is light and inquiries few; still a better feeling is beginning to be apparent.

Lead—Quiet, 6¾c gold, and 9@9¼c currency.

Tin—Quiet, 22c, gold, for straits, and 31@31½c, currency.

Spelter—Firm, at 6¾c, gold, 9¼@9½c currency.

Tin Plates—Share the general dullness of trade.

PHILADELPHIA.

In pig metal there is more doing, says the American, of Saturday. Sales of 1,800 No. 1 Anthracite at $40@41 ₱ ton; No. 2 at $38@39, and forge at $37 ₱ ton. Scotch pig is quoted at $45@46. Manufactured iron is firmly held, but the demand is limited.

Tin—There has been no business in pig, says the Commercial List, and prices are nominally the same, say 22c for straits; 25½c for Banca, and 22c for English, gold. Plates are steady and quite firm.

BALTIMORE.

The market, says the Commercial, is dull for all kinds of pig. We quote prices nominally unchanged, viz: Anthracite No. 1 $45, No. 2 $42, and No. 3 $40 ₱ ton; Baltimore forge $51, and Scotch $44@46 ₱ ton for lots from the yard.

Potomac Shad and Herring.

Yesterday, says the Washington City Star, of Friday, 114,000 herring and 12,000 shad were landed at the fish wharf, foot of Seventh street, and disposed of at from $8 to $9 ₱ 1,000 for herring, and from $8 50 to $12 ₱ 100 for shad. The supply this morning is rather small. The country custom is unabated.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE OIL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY, April 29th, 1867.

Total for the week		68,959	13,000	81,959
Since January 1		347,298	93,466	440,764
To April 27		416,257	106,466	522,723
Same time 1866		314,202	82,218	396,420
Increase in 1867		102,055	24,248	126,303

The market during the week was not very active. The unsettled state of affairs in Europe has produced a similar state of affairs here. Buyers either held off altogether or purchased very sparingly. The stock of crude on hand is not large. The largest portion of the receipts have gone to supply previous contracts. The receipts by river and rail for the week were 83,959 bbls. The entire receipts since the opening of navigation were 522,723 bbls, being an increase of 126,303 bbls over the same period in 1866. The week's sales were not so large as the week previous. We notice as follows: Crude, in lots, principally for future delivery, 17,650 bbls; refined, 25,150 bbls; total sales, 52,800 bbls. The rates of crude were governed altogether by the gravity—bulk ranging from 6½c, 6¾@7c on the spot, whilst sales were made for future delivery at various prices. The market closed in a very unsettled condition.

REFINED OIL—Towards the close of the week was neglected. Sales were made at a variety of prices. Towards the close buyers were shy and not disposed to purchase to any extent.

Saturday—The market on Saturday was pretty active. The crude sales were 4,300 bbls, in lots, as follows: 800 bbls crude, immediate, 6½c; 1,500 bbls do., 6¾c; 1,000 bbls do. 6¾c, and 1,000 bbls do. 6½c.

REFINED OIL.—The sales were large, reaching 1,400 bbls bonded, as follows, for Philadelphia delivery: 500 bbls July, standard white, 30c; 500 do. August, 30c; 500 do. September, 30c; 500 do. October, 30c; 500 do. November, 30c; 500 bbls do. December, 30c. Sales 1,000 bbls do. June, Philadelphia, 28½c; 1,000 bbls do. July, 28½c; 1,000 bbls do. August, 28½c; 1,000 bbls do. September, 28½c; 1,000 do. October, 28½c; 1,000 bbls do. November, 28½c, and 1,000 bbls do. December, 28½c. Also, 500 bbls standard white, September, 29c.

TITUSVILLE, PA.

The market is slightly active, says the Herald of Friday last, with a dull feeling and without change from previous prices. The dull feeling which pervaded the market to-day was mostly caused by continued adverse reports from the home and foreign markets. There is still some difference between the views of buyers and producers. There was a fair amount of inquiry to-day. The New York, Pittsburgh and Cleveland buyers were in the market. On Bull Run an offer was made of $2 for 47 gr oil at the wells. On Pioneer Run offers were made of $2 for 48 gr oil at the wells. In the vicinity of Petroleum Centre $2 25 was offered for 48 gr at the wells. On the Stevenson Farm an offer of $2 25 was refused for 48 gr oil at the wells. On Church Run oil of 45 gr is held at $2 25 at the wells. The sales are two car loads on Pioneer Run, from the Fee well, for the New York market, 45 gr. or under, at $2 10 delivered on the cars; three car loads on Pioneer Run, for the Cleveland market, heavy gravity, at $2 25, delivered on the cars; 2,000 barrels on the Stevenson and McClintock Farms, from G. K. Anderson's wells for the Cleveland market, 47 and 48 gr, at $2 25 at the wells; 200 barrels on Pioneer Run, from the Fee well, for the New York market, 44 gr, at $1 15 at the wells; 100 barrels on the McElhenny Farm, for the New York market, gravity not stated, at $1 90 at the wells.

PHILADELPHIA.

The market has been quite heavy, says the Commercial List, of Saturday, and the transactions have been limited. Sales of 2,000 bbls crude at 16@16½c; 4,500 bbls refined, in bond, at 29@29½c for standard W., and 27@27½c for standard white; 1,000 bbls S. W. for the first half of May at 27¾c, buyers' option; 1,000 bbls S. W. for June at 27¾c, buyers' option; 500 bbls S. W. for July at 28c, buyers' option; 1,000 bbls S. W. for May to December at 29½c, buyers' option; 5,000 bbls S. W., deliverable 1,000 bbls each month from August to December, at 30c, buyers' option; 1,500 bbls S. W., September, October and November, at 31c, buyers' option, and 1,000 bbls S. W. for all this year at 32¼c, buyers' option. Free oil is scarce at 41@45c. Prices o Residuum and Naptha are nominal. The receipts, during the week, were 4,232 bbls crude and 16,914 bbls refined. During the week two vessels cleared, taking 163,517 gallons refined. Twenty-five vessels are now chartered and loading.

Baltimore Coffee Market.

There has been but little doing this week in Coffee, says the Commercial, of Saturday, and the feeling in the market has throughout been rather heavy. The advance in gold affects the market unfavorably as it materially increases the currency price, and buyers are holding off. The sales comprise 1,200 bags Rio ex "May Queen," and 400 bags do ex "Grey Eagle," on private terms, 250 bags rejected Rio at 16½@18c, 600 bags sound do at 17½@19½c, and 100 bags Laguayra at 18½ gr duty paid. We quote as follows, viz: Rio at 16½@17½c gold, in bond, for cargoes and invoices, fair to prime; and jobbing lots do at 16½@18½c for ordinary to good; 19@19½c for prime and choice; Laguayra at 18@19c; and Java at 30c gold, duty paid. The imports this week are 4,000 bags Rio per "Grey Eagle," and 2,200 bags do per "May Queen."

Weekly Review of the Wholesale Market.

NEW YORK, April 27.—During the week flour was more active, with a decided reaction in lower grades, and all kinds improved. The arrivals of western have been limited for the season, but now that the straits of Mackinaw are open, more liberal arrivals are anticipated. Trade and firm grades are in small supply and close firm. Low grades close active and higher.

Early in the week wheat was comparatively quiet. Subsequently the war news from Europe and materially advance in gold caused a rapid rise in prices. The high rates asked have checked the demand.

Barley has been in fair demand, chiefly for export. At the close it is quiet but firm.

Oats were in active demand. Prices have rapidly improved, but were easy at the close.

Corn in active demand and the market much excited. The request was partly speculative, though for export. The stock is reduced to less than 950,000 bushels. At the close prices were much easier and unsettled.

Pork has been in fair demand at variable prices. The arrivals are moderate. Prices are about $1 ₱ barrel less than at this time last year. The stock is about the same. The market closes easier.

Beef has been in better demand with small stocks; prices are firm. The tendency is still upwards.

Coffee active at a slight decline.

Cotton was dull and unsteady early in the week, but at the close improved. Buyers and sellers are apart in their views. The market is quiet.

Imports of the week—dry goods, $1,335,866; general merchandise, $5,203,954.

Exports for the nine months' ending March 31st, including specie—$157,305,239. Imports, ditto, $33,-477,656.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, April 27.—Flour scarce, and especially sound grades, and full rates were obtained, though the demand is light; super $12@13; trade brands $14@15 50; good family $15 50@16. Wheat firm; sales of sound winter by sample at $3 32. Receipts very light. Corn dull and lower, closing at 96c for No. 1 in elevator. Oats firm and in light supply at 72c for No. 1. Rye scarce at $1 72@1 75. Barley unchanged and quiet. Cotton unsettled, closing with holders of middling at 25c; no sellers below 26c. Whisky dull at 28c in bond. Provisions quiet; mess pork held at $22 50, but no sales. Bulk meats dull; sales of country at 7½@9¾c, loose, for shoulders and sides; 11c for hams. Bacon dull at shoulders 9c, and clear sides 12c. Lard dull at 12½@12¾c; demand light. Butter dull at 26@28c for prime to choice. Cheese firm at 16@17c for old; new not saleable. Cloverseed dull; prices nominal at $10; timothy $2 90@3 00, and dull; flax in demand at $2 90@3 00 for clean and sound. Sugar and molasses unchanged and dull. Linseed oil $1 46@1 48. Petroleum 42@46c for refined free; these are jobbing rates. Tobacco dull and drooping; sales 160 packages at $2@7 for lugs, and $7@30 for leaf. Gold lower and dull, closing at 136 buying, and 137 selling. The money market is easy at 7@9 per cent. Exchange firm at par buying, and 1-10 selling.

St. Louis Market.

ST. LOUIS, April 27.—Tobacco dull and heavy. Cotton advanced to 23c for middling. Flour—The feeling is a little stronger, but the market is dull; double extra sold at $14 75@17 50. Wheat—Feeling better, and the higher grades of fall advanced; good and choice spring $2 65@2 85; prime fall $3 30@3 40; choice $3 50@3 55. Corn dull and declined, closing at $1 10@1 14. Oats higher at 82@85c. Barley dull and lower; choice spring $1 32½. Rye dull at $1 50@1 55. Provisions and lard quiet and unchanged. Whisky dull at $2 05.

Buffalo Market.

BUFFALO, April 27.—Flour in good demand for spring; sales 500 bbls at $13; little doing. There is a fair inquiry for wheat; sales all on private terms. THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—The weather since our last has been changeable. On Saturday night we had a heavy frost, sufficient, at least, to cripple the fruit in this vicinity. The Monongahela marks indicated six feet four inches; the Allegheny marks seven feet four inches. Since our last the following towboats came in: O. H. Ormsby, N. J. Bigley, Bengal Tiger, and Mary Ann. The Arab departed for Cincinnati with seventy-five thousand bushels of coal. The America left on Saturday with a fair trip. The Belle Vernon came in since our last with a big trip from St. Louis. The Nora took her departure for the mountains, with a moderate trip and engagements below. The Wild Duck and barges, Swan and Dove, were due last evening; they will return to St. Louis. The Glasgow is announced to depart to-morrow, positively, for St. Louis. The Ida Rees, Captain Brown, leaves for Cincinnati on Wednesday. The Minnie, a very excellent boat, is loading in tern for St. Louis. The Grey Eagle left on Saturday with a big trip. The Bayard, sidewheel, is the Parkersburg packet for this day. The Ingomar takes her departure for Matamoras at 11 A. M. The Peerless left for Cincinnati with a good trip. Business on the landing on Saturday was dull. Freights were scarce.

THE steamer Westmoreland, Capt Evans, arrived at New Orleans on the 25th.

THE steamer Spray is due from Portsmouth. She will return to that port on Tuesday at 4 P. M.

THE Armadillo gave up her Pittsburgh trip at Cincinnati and reshipped on the Argosy some 135 tons.

THE steamer Glendale was announced to leave St. Louis, for this port, on Saturday.

THE tow boat Arab left for Cincinnati with 7 barges containing 75,000 bushels of coal.

THE "Great Republic" gave a big dance to the Cairoites on Thursday night, and the next morning proceeded on her way with a big trip.

WE are indebted to the officers of the steamer "Belle Vernon" for attentions to this office. She is announced for a return trip.

THE Nora left about nine o'clock for St. Louis and Idaho, about half loaded, Captain Shedden having a full load engaged at St. Louis.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The splendid passenger steamer Glasgow will have her cargo completed and leave positively on Tuesday noon, for St. Louis and St. Paul.

THE America, which left here on Saturday, will reship her New Orleans freight at Cincinnati and load for the Tennessee river, running in connection with the Camelia.

THE following named tow boats came in since our last issue: Mary Ann, Bengal Tiger, O. H. Ormsby, N. J. Bigley. Most of them had tows of empty barges.

THE America, Capt. J. H. Golding, left nearly loaded for New Orleans and way points. She will reship her New Orleans freight at Cincinnati, and enter the Tennessee River Trade in connection with the Camelia.

AN exchange says that a batchelor steamboat captain, who was remarking the other day that he wanted a good chief officer, was promptly informed by a young lady present that she had no objection to be his first mate. He took the hint—and the lady.

THE Bayard, Captain G. D. Moore, is the regular packet for Parkersburg and all way landings, leaving punctually at 12 o'clock. Veteran Dan. Moore is clerk, and will, by his gentlemanly conduct, add largely to the number of friends of this excellent packet.

FRIDAY'S Cincinnati Enquirer says: Mr. A. J. Hazlett, of the office of the New York, was detained here by illness. He had sufficiently recovered to leave for his home at Pittsburgh yesterday.

The splendid New steamer America, of the Louisville Mail Line, will take her trial trip to-day,

OUR old friend Capt. Joseph Browne has announced the favorite steamer Ida Rees for Cincinnati and Louisville. This boat is just off the ways, having undergone thorough and complete repair. Persons desiring a pleasant trip should not neglect the Ida Rees.

THE Louisville Courier claims that the Richmond's trip from New Orleans to Louisville (five days and nineteen hours) was the fastest time since the war. We guarantee to prove, by the files of Courier, that the Dick Fulton No. 3, a tow-boat made the run in five days and five hours. The Fulton is not low pressure.

THE splendid packet Minnie, Captain Shaw, is announced for Cairo and St. Louis on Wednesday. This boat is well found in every respect, and is in charge of as clever a set of officers as can be found. Our friend M'Connell, who has charge of the office, will see that passengers have the best of attention.

ASTONISHING.—The Louisville Courier says, in speaking of the Great Republic, "If she is being stripped to racing trim, she may prove a troublesome customer." Just so. That problem will be solved before long. There is a good time coming, just wait a few days longer.

THE Ingomar, Captain Fred. Kemple, is the regular semi-weekly packet for Wheeling and Matamoras. She leaves this day at 11 o'clock, touching at all way points. Mr. Sam. Glover has charge of the office, and all business entrusted to him will be faithfully attended to.

WHEN the Richmond was being built we were daily informed that she would require only twenty pounds of steam in her up trip. She carried twenty-five pounds and made but little over ten miles per hour. She is now going to carry thirty-five pounds—being an increase of nearly double of what was first intended.

THE first class passenger steamer Glasgow, Capt. G. W. Johnson, is announced for St. Louis, Galena, Dubuque, St. Paul, on Saturday, positively. This boat has great speed, superior accommodations, and makes her trips with great regularity. Persons who have traveled on the Glasgow speak in flattering terms of her appointments.

SPECIAL NOTICE—The fine passenger steamer Glasgow, Capt. Johnson, will positively leave on Tuesday at 12 M. for Cairo and St. Louis. This boat is well found in every respect and is in charge of as clever and gentlemanly officers as can be found. To persons going that way a fine opportunity is offered.

THE Peerless did not get away until late Saturday night. Just before preparing to leave, at three o'clock, the engineer discovered a leak in one of the joints of the main steam pipe, and they had to cool down and take it up to the shop to be soldered. She left about ten o'clock, with a fine trip of freight and a fair passenger trip.

APPLICATION OF STEAM POWER TO THE CAPSTANS OF VESSELS.—Jno. S. McMillan, Pittsburgh, Pa.: I claim rotating a capstan placed on deck of a boat by means of an auxiliary engine, when said engine and capstan are placed forward of the steam boilers of said boat, substantially as hereinbefore described and for the purposes set forth.

THE steamer Belle Vernon left St. Louis Thursday morning, the 18th, with three hundred tons iron and one hundred and fifty tons assorted freight. Discharged forty tons at Louisville. Thirty tons assorted freight and a hundred tons pig iron at Cincinnati. After receiving considerable freight she left Cincinnati Tuesday evening for Pittsburgh.

THE Le Claire Register of Saturday contains the following: "The first raft of lumber this season from above, arrived at our landing on Thursday last. The lumber was from Black river, and had been laid up all winter in Harris's slough, near Galena. The lumber season may now be considered opened, and we shall shortly see numerous fleets pass our shores for the use and benefit of our more southerly neighbors."

AN OLD BOATMAN GONE.—We learn that Captain Abe Miller died at his house in Sellersburg, Ind., on Sunday last. Capt. Miller was one of the oldest pilots on the river, having been engaged as pilot or captain during the past forty years. Before steamboats came into general use on the Western waters, Capt. M. followed the river as flatboat and bargeman, and has walked from New Orleans a number of times. During the late war he served as pilot in the Mississippi squadron, and was in several naval engagements. Although he had attained the ripe old age of eighty, he retained his vigor to a remarkable degree up to within a few months of his death. He was well known and highly respected by steamboatmen from Pittsburgh to St. Louis and New Orleans.

FRIDAY'S St. Louis Democrat says: The river is about as 'twas yesterday and day before. Visions of much higher water need not be entertained. It is just about as high as it will be any other day this year. The Missouri and the Upper Mississippi are distressingly high, but old boatmen easily demonstrate why there should be a rapid decline before many days. Our boats find plenty of water everywhere, and the depth to Cairo is supposed to be over twenty feet. A couple of comparatively large boats, the Graham and Tracy, are taking on loads of freight for Upper Missouri river forts. Mountain steamers load slowly. Thirty have departed, and a few more have not departed. Freight is in fair supply for the New Orleans, Memphis and Vicksburg packets. Boats for the Missouri go out crowded with passengers.

THE Richmond departed on her second trip to New Orleans, full of people and with a fair amount of freight. She has engagements below that will fill her up. It is probable that the Great Republic and the Richmond will come together on the Mississippi. If so there will be some betting as to the running of the rival boats, but we do not believe that there will be any racing, for Captain Neal is too careful and conscientious a steamboat man to trifle with the feelings of his passengers. It is our idea that the Richmond will pass the Republic even under her ordinary head of steam. We may be mistaken, if so we will know better next time.—Louisville Journal.

We think it very likely that they will come together, and if they do we can assure the Reporters of the Louisville papers all the gasing they can do for the Richmond won't save her. She will be tried on her merits and they will be found very deficient. Captain Neal has promised to beat any other boat afloat 24 hours. All that will have to be taken back. We believe the Great Republic is the fastest boat afloat. We hope the Richmond won't back out. Let it be decided!

The New Steamer Belle Vernon.

A meeting of the passengers from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, on board the steamboat Belle Vernon, Capt. John J. Darragh, Jr., was held on board the steamer near St. Louis, on Friday evening, April 12th, 1867. The meeting was organized by calling Rev. R. Ross to the chair, and appointing Samuel Kennedy secretary.

On motion a committee, consisting of Messrs. Workman, Stevenson and Swerer, was appointed to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. After a few minutes' absence the committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, viz:

WHEREAS, We, the passengers on the new and splendid steamer "Belle Vernon" on her present trip from Pittsburg to St. Louis, feeling under great obligations to the Captain, officers and crew of said boat, for the many favors received; therefore,

Resolved, That we return our sincere thanks and heartfelt gratitude to our young and gallant commander, Captain John J. Darragh, Jr., and his efficient officers and crew for their kind, generous and gentlemanly conduct on all occasions and under all circumstances; and further,

Resolved, That we feel it our duty to recommend said boat and her officers to our friends and the traveling public in general, feeling certain that they will not be disappointed in any reasonable wish or desire.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC RAILROAD CO. SEVEN PER CENT.

First Mortgage Bonds

$2,000,000 in Coupon Bonds of $1,000 Each,

TWENTY YEARS TO RUN,

Principal and Interest Guaranteed by the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company.

And secured by property valued at $7,500,000 consisting of their completed road to the Gasconade river, 127 miles from St. Louis, and 250,000 Acres of Rich Agricultural and Mineral Lands along its line.

This road passes through a country rich in agricultural resources and in minerals, and particularly in iron and lead; the iron ore of the South West Missouri being the purest known, ranging from 60 to 90 per cent. of pure iron. Rich and extensive deposits of specular oxide and red and brown hematite abound all along the line of the road and on the Company's lands in greater quantities than the total deposit of any state in the Union, and a large business is now being inaugurated in the shipment of ore for the Eastern furnaces, the vast excess in value of this over other ores paying the differences in cost of transportation.

By a provision of the mortgage, when lands are sold to the amount of $40,000, it is to constitute a fund for the redemption of a like amount of the bonds, which are also received by the Company at PAR in payment for land. This land is now being disposed of at rates from $5 to $40 per acre. The climate is equable and salubrious, and the winter being as mild as in Virginia. For particulars respecting lands, apply to ... BERT, Land Agent, at St. Louis, Mo.

The Company has been recently merged with the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company, having a land grant of 55,000,000 of acres, thereby insuring to the fullest to the extension of these bonds. The road of the latter Company will form a direct and continuous railway from St. Louis to San Francisco, much shorter and of very easier gradients than any other route.

Of the present issue of bonds, a limited amount is now offered for sale at the low rate of 80 per cent., subject to advance at the option of the Company. For further particulars apply to WARD & CO., Bankers, NO. 54 WALL ST., NEW YORK.

Or to the undersigned, who are the authorized Agents for the sale of the above Bonds in this city, and having made a thorough examination into their merits, we would respectfully recommend them to our friends and capitalists as a safe, reliable and very paying investment.

BANKERS AND BROKERS.

HART, CAUGHEY & CO., Bankers & Brokers, COR. THIRD AND WOOD STS., PITTSBURGH, PA., (Successors to HANNA, HART & CO.,)

Dealers in EXCHANGE, COIN, COUPONS, &c. Particular attention paid to the purchase and sale of GOVERNMENT BONDS, SIGHT DRAFTS ON LONDON.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, PITTSBURGH, PA., (late Pittsburgh Trust Company,) Capital 500,000, paid in, with privilege to increase to $1,000,000.

The Pittsburgh Trust Company having organized under the Act to provide a National Currency, under the title of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PITTSBURGH, would respectfully offer its services for the collection of Notes, Drafts, Bills of Exchange, &c.; receive money on deposit, and buy and sell Exchange on all parts of the country.

The success which has attended the Pittsburgh Trust Company since its organization in 1852, we believe, to be a sufficient guarantee that business entrusted to the new organization will receive the same prompt attention.

Having a very extensive correspondence with Banks and Bankers throughout the country, we believe we can offer unusual facilities to those who do business with us.

The business will be conducted by the same officers and directors.
